711 Capitol Way South, Room 206
Olympia, WA 98501

Dear Sir/Madam,

Today we received notification from the Campaign Finance Unit of the Attorney General of Washington regarding a citizen complaint that referenced a $2,000.00 campaign contribution that UNITE HERE TIP State and Local Fund made to Marko Liias for State Treasurer committee on July 13, 2016. The complaint stated that UNITE HERE TIP State and Local Fund failed to file a C5 Out-of-State Political Committee Campaign Finance Report to disclose this contribution to the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission. We reviewed our records and found that on August 9, 2016 we had sent a completed and signed C5 report reporting the contribution in question to the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission via US Postal Service Certified Mail.

We have retained a copy of the Certified Mail Receipt, and today used the tracking number to find that the US Postal Service still has this report listed as "In Transit to Destination" as of 3:27 PM on August 14, 2016. Attached to this letter you will find copies of the original completed and signed C5 Report, the Certified Mail Receipt, and the US Postal Service tracking report which shows the status. We believe that these documents show proof that the report mentioned was completed and filed in a timely manner.

I am sending a copy of the original to resubmit the report disclosing the contribution.

Please let me know what further steps need to be taken to rectify this situation.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Zaina Tannu-Khan
Assistant Treasurer
