This letter is in response to an inquiry filed by Mr David Churchman on June of 2017 in regards to my 2016 PDC F1 Financial Disclosure as originally submitted on May 5, 2017.

Upon recent review of the F1 form, it appears that some information requested was unintentionally left out due to my lack of understanding as a newly elected public servant in combination with the lack of detailed examples within the PDC form which might have given me more direction and specifics as to what was required.

Upon discovery of the additional information required, I promptly revised my 2016 F1 form on December 12, 2017 through the online access of the PDC website.

The missing information was in no way intended to go unreported, but rather a result of my lack of understanding as to what information was specifically required.

With my ongoing and growing understanding of this process, you can be assured that all required information moving forward will be reflected more accurately as requested to the best of my knowledge.

Sincerely,
Dean Johnson
