RE: Alleged violation RCW 42.17A.235

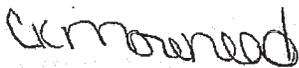

To Whom It May Concern:

I have reviewed the campaign account records in regards to the alleged violation notice received on February 21, 2017. In my review, I have discovered that there is one C-3 report that was inadvertently not filed for a deposit made on October 21, 2015. During the last two weeks of October 2015, we were notified of maintenance work being done on the Public Disclosure Commission site. It appears that I was unable to file my report when attempted and unfortunately, then forgot to go back into the system and complete it. I sincerely apologize for this oversight and will work to correct the record. Upon approval from the Public Disclosure Commission, I will immediately complete and file the report through the ORCA system to remedy this issue.

For reference, I have attached copies of the checks that were included in the deposit and a copy of the campaign account bank statement for verification of the information. These copies show that each of the contributions listed in the complaint were included in this deposit.

Should any further information be needed, please do not hesitate to contact me. Otherwise, I will await authorization from the Public Disclosure Commission to enter the information into the ORCA system and file the C-3 to correct the records.

Sincerely,

Christina Morehead
