In Re Compliance with RCW 42.17A

Brad O'Brien

Respondent.

PDC Case 10072

Findings of Fact,
Conclusions of Law, and Order Imposing Fine

A brief enforcement hearing (brief adjudicative proceeding) was held on January 20, 2017, in Room 206, Evergreen Plaza Building, 711 Capitol Way, Olympia, Washington to consider whether the Respondent violated RCW 42.17A.700 by failing to timely file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report) as an incumbent official, which was due to be filed not later than April 15, 2016, disclosing financial activities for calendar year 2015.

The hearing was held in accordance with Chapters 34.05 and 42.17A RCW and Chapter 390-37 WAC. A brief enforcement hearing notice was sent to Brad O'Brien on December 1, 2016. Commission Chair Anne Levinson was the Presiding Officer. The Commission staff was represented by Kurt Young, Compliance Officer. The Respondent did not participate in the hearing, but he submitted a letter to the Presiding Officer, along with a completed Statement of Understanding, and a $100 penalty payment.

Having considered the evidence, the Presiding Officer finds as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Respondent is an incumbent School Director for the Columbia School District since being appointed to that position in April of 2013.
2. As an incumbent School Director, the Respondent was required to file an F-1 report no later than April 15, 2016.
3. The Respondent filed the missing F-1 report on January 9, 2017.
4. The Respondent has no prior PDC violations.

5. The Respondent apologized for the late filed F-1 report, stated that he has no other late filings or PDC violations, and that this will not happen again. He stated he acknowledged filing the F-1 report late by completing the Statement of Understanding and paying the $100 penalty, but that he was contesting the $100 penalty and hoping that the penalty would be waived. He stated his position as a school director is not compensated, and that calendar year 2016 was a very busy year for his family,

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the above facts, as a matter of law, the Presiding Officer concludes as follows:

1. This matter was duly and properly convened and all jurisdictional, substantive and procedural requirements have been satisfied.
2. The Respondent violated RCW 42.17A.700 by failing to timely file the F-1 report by April 15, 2016.

ORDER

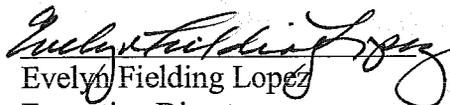

ON the basis of the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

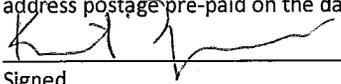

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Respondent is assessed a civil penalty of $100, in accordance with the F-1 penalty schedule set forth in WAC 390-37-160, and that the Statement of Understanding and $100 penalty payment is accepted.

This is an Initial Order of the Public Disclosure Commission.

Entered this 2nd day of February, 2017.

Respondent's Appeal Rights

REVIEW OF INITIAL ORDER - BY THE COMMISSION

The presiding officer will issue an initial order following a brief enforcement hearing. Any party may request the Commission review an initial order. Parties seeking the review must:

- Make the request orally or in writing, stating the reason for review (WAC 390-37-144).
- Deliver the request so it is received at the Commission office within TWENTY-ONE (21) BUSINESS DAYS after the postmark date of the initial order.

A Respondent does not need to pay a penalty until after the Commission rules on the request. If the Commission is unable to schedule a meeting to consider the request within twenty (20) business days, the initial order becomes a final order and the request will automatically be treated as a request for reconsideration of a final order (unless the party advises the Commission otherwise, such as by withdrawing the request). See more information on reconsideration below.

If the request for review was an oral request, it must now be confirmed in writing. The matter will be scheduled before the full Commission as soon as practicable. If the Commission does not receive a request for review within twenty-one (21) business days, the initial order will automatically become a final order. At that point, the Respondent is legally obligated to pay the penalty unless reconsideration has been sought or the matter has been timely appealed to Superior Court. RCW 42.17A.755; RCW 34.05.470; RCW 34.05.570.

RECONSIDERATION OF FINAL ORDER – BY THE COMMISSION

Any party may ask the Commission to reconsider a final order. Parties seeking reconsideration must:

- Make the request in writing;
- Include the specific grounds or reasons for the request; and
- Deliver the request to the PDC office so it is received within TWENTY-ONE (21) BUSINESS DAYS of the date that the Commission serves this order upon the party. WAC 390-37-150.
- Note: the date of service by the Commission on a party is considered the date of mailing by U.S. mail if the order is mailed, the date the Order is emailed if agreed to by the Respondent, or the date received if the order is personally served. RCW 34.05.010(19). (The Commission orders are generally mailed via U.S. mail or emailed.)

Within twenty (20) business days after the petition for reconsideration is filed, the Commission may either act on the petition or notify the parties in writing of the date by which it will act. If neither of these events happens within twenty business days, the Commission is deemed to have denied the petition for reconsideration. WAC 390-37-150.

A Respondent is not required to ask the Commission to reconsider a final order before seeking judicial review by a superior court. RCW 34.05.470(5).

FURTHER APPEAL RIGHTS – SUPERIOR COURT

A final order issued by the Public Disclosure Commission is subject to judicial review under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), chapter 34.05 RCW. RCW 42.17A.755. The procedures are provided in the APA at RCW 34.05.510 - .574.

ENFORCEMENT OF FINAL ORDERS

If enforcement of a final order is required, the Commission may seek to enforce a final order in superior court under RCW 42.17A.755 - .760, and recover legal costs and attorney's fees if a penalty remains unpaid and no petition for judicial review has been filed. This action will be taken without further order by the Commission.
