Subject: Complaint regarding King County Democrats, PDC Case 32720

Dear Glen Morgan:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has completed its review of the complaint you filed on March 6, 2017. Your complaint alleged that the King County Democratic Central Committee may have violated: (1) RCW 42.17A.235, and .240 by failing to timely file Monetary Contribution reports (C-3 reports) and Summary Full Campaign Contribution and Expenditure reports (C-4 reports) disclosing contribution and expenditure activities undertaken during the 2016 election; and (2) RCW 42.17A.205 by failing to timely file an amended Committee Registration (C-1pc report) within two weeks of the change of a principal committee officer, in this instance the political party committee Treasurer.

PDC staff reviewed your allegations, and as a result of staff's initial review, we found the following:

- The allegations contained in the complaint underlying PDC Case 9861 are substantially similar to a citizen action complaint, filed with the Attorney General's Office pursuant to RCW 42.17A.765.
- On May 12, 2017, the PDC became aware that a lawsuit containing substantially similar allegations as the complaint underlying PDC Case 9861 was filed in Superior Court in the name of Washington State.
- The Superior Court now has primary jurisdiction over the substance of this complaint, and the PDC will defer to its judgment in bringing the issues to resolution.

The PDC has closed the matter, and will not be conducting a more formal investigation into your complaint or pursuing further enforcement action in this case.

If you have questions, you may contact Kurt Young at 1-360-664-8854 or toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail at kurt.young@pdcc.wa.gov.
