To Whom it May Concern --

It has come to my attention that Jim Cooper has violated RCW 42.17A on four separate occasions.

1) Jim Cooper produced a Facebook video, failed to include both written and spoken sponsor identification. This is a violation of RCW 42.17A.320 (1).

The video can be found here: <https://www.facebook.com/electjimcooper/videos/1056014261112966/>

2) A second Jim Cooper produced Facebook video, failed to include both written and spoken sponsor identification. This is a violation of RCW 42.17A.320 (1).

The video can be found here:

<https://www.facebook.com/electjimcooper/videos/1052636098117449/>

3) Jim Cooper failed to accurately report the expenditure/in-kind donation of the two aforementioned professionally produced videos. (See Cooper C3s and C4s for omission)

4) Jim Cooper failed to include sponsor ID on his webpage. This is a violation of RCW 42.17A.320 (1). (See attachment & webpage at <http://www.electjimcooper.com/>)

Jim Cooper is not a first time candidate. He has run for office on multiple occasions, and has flagrantly flaunted these serious violations in the face of Thurston County voters.

The fact that voters overwhelmingly rejected Cooper as a Thurston County Commissioner candidate should not excuse his failure to comply with the disclosure rules.

I encourage the PDC to conduct a full investigation of Cooper's campaign immediately.

Best,

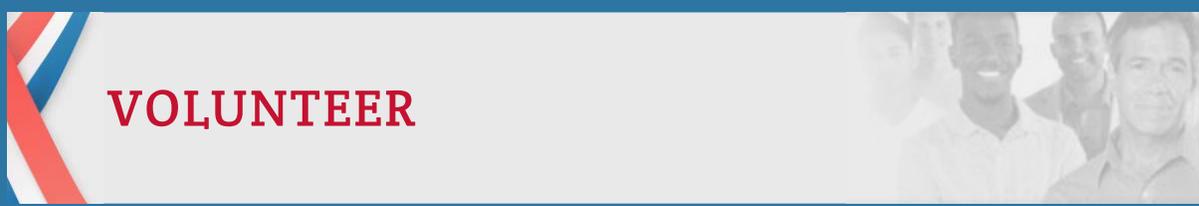

Glen Morgan
