Subject: PDC case 8067

Dear Ms. Sorrels:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has completed its initial review of the complaint you filed on September 6, 2016. Your complaint alleged that Roslynne Reed, candidate for Mason County Commissioner, may have violated RCW 42.17A.320 by failing to include party preference on yard signs.

PDC staff reviewed your allegations, and as a result of staff's initial review, we found the following:

- When made aware of the complaint the Reed campaign removed some signs, and updated others to be in compliance with PDC requirements.
- Roslynne Reed has no previous violations of PDC laws and rules.

Based on these initial findings, I have determined the Reed campaign's failure to include party preference on yard signs does not amount to a material violation warranting further investigation. Pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(b), Ms. Reed will receive a warning letter, and a reminder to include party preference in accordance with PDC laws and rules.

The PDC has closed the matter, and will not be conducting a more formal investigation into your complaint or pursuing enforcement action in this case.

If you have questions, you may contact Jacob Berkey, toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail at Jacob.berkey@pdc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Jacob Berkey
PDC Compliance
