OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Clark County Republican Party

PDC Case 7934

Report of Investigation

I. BACKGROUND and ALLEGATIONS

- 1.1 The Clark County Republican Party (CCRP) is the official Republican Party Central Committee for Clark County. The committee receives contributions and makes expenditures to support and oppose candidates in Clark County.
- 1.2 In addition to Case 7934, on September 5, 2017, Walter Smith filed a Citizen Action Notice (CAN) with the Attorney General's Office, PDC Case 24650. Like Case 7934, Mr. Smith's complaint addresses the failure of the Clark County Republican Party to timely or accurately report contributions and expenditures.
- 1.3 On October 27, 2017, the Attorney General's Office (AGO) filed a lawsuit against the Clark County Republican Party, in response to the CAN, alleging that the party failed to timely report a total of $586,268 in contributions, and $463,079 in debts and expenditures since 2012. (Exhibit 1)
- 1.4 Because the alleged violations in Case 7934 are being substantially addressed by the AGO in its lawsuit, the PDC will not pursue enforcement action in this matter.
- 1.5 Jacob Berkey, former PDC employee, conducted the initial investigation. Phil Stutzman reviewed the investigation and signed the Report of Investigation on behalf of Mr. Berkey.

II. ALLEGATIONS

- 2.1 On August 28, 2016, the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) received a complaint from Elizabeth Campbell regarding the Clark County Republican Party (CCRP). The complaint alleged that CCRP failed to report campaign expenditures for mailers in violation of RCW 42.17A.235, .240 and .260. (Exhibit 2)

- 3.2 The complainant sent a secondary inquiry on September 14, 2016, which included further allegations of violations of RCW 42.17A.235 and .240. (Exhibit 3)

II. FINDINGS

- 3.1 PDC staff contacted CCRP regarding the complaint on August 30, 2016, and requested a written response by September 6, 2016.
- 3.2 After being made aware of the complaint, on August 31, 2016, CCRP filed a C-6 report showing four expenditures for electioneering communications on July 22, 2016, totaling $12,088. This report was filed 40 days late based on the filing requirements in RCW 42.17A.260. (Exhibit 4)
- 3.3 On September 7, 2016, CCRP filed thirty-seven Cash Receipts, Monetary Contributions Reports (PDC Form C-3) and two amended C-3 reports. The period covered by these reports was June 1, 2016 - July 26, 2016, making the reports between 28-57 days late. These reports were all filed after the August 2, 2016 primary. (Exhibit 5)
- 3.4 There were two corresponding Summary, Full Report Receipts and Expenditures Reports (PDC Form C-4), also received on September 7, 2016:
- a. The first C-4 report covered the period June 1, 2016 - July 11, 2016. This report was due July 12, 2016, 21 days before the August 2, 2016 Primary Election. The report shows $50,088 in contributions received and $27,919 in expenditures. These contributions represented 42 percent of all contributions received by CCRP during 2016, as of September 20, 2016. The contributions were reported 57 days late, and after the Primary Election. (Exhibit 6)
  - b. The second C-4 report, received September 7, 2016, covered the period July 12 - July 25, 2016, and was due July 25, 2016, seven days before the Primary Election. This report was received 44 days late, and after the August 2, 2016, Primary Election. The report shows $1,964 in contributions received and $5,205 in expenditures. (Exhibit 7)
- 3.5 Fourteen C-3 reports and two C-4 reports were received September 8, 2016. Two of these C-3 reports disclose contributions received before the August 2, 2016 Primary that were reported 43 days late. Contributions between these two C-3 reports total $1,020. (Exhibit 8 & 9)
- 3.6 CCRP amended three C-4 reports on September 16, 2014, after the second complaint was filed:
- a. Amended C-4, June 1 - July 11, 2016: This report shows the same amount of contributions as the C-4 noted above. The only change to the amended report is the description of an expense on Schedule A. The description of the expense on the amended report states, "WRITE-IN LIZ PIKE – year old invoice overlooked now being paid.” It appears that the expense was disclosed on the previous C-4, but the report was amended to add clarity to the description. This report arrived 66 days late and 45 days after the August 2, 2016 Primary Election. (Exhibit 10)

- b. The two other amended C-4 reports covered the time periods July 12 – July 25, 2016 and July 26 – August 2, 2016. They arrived 45 days after the Primary Election. (Exhibit 11 & 12)

3.7 It appears that since receipt of the complaint, CCRP has been filing reports based on PDC requirements.

AGO files campaign finance complaint against Clark County Republicans

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oct 27 2017

OLYMPIA —The Attorney General's Office (AGO) today announced that it filed a complaint in Thurston County Superior Court alleging campaign finance violations by the Clark County Republican Central Committee. Specifically, the AGO asserts the committee failed to timely report a total of $586,268 in contributions, and $463,079 in debts and expenditures since 2012.

In September, the AGO received a Citizen Action Notice alleging multiple violations of the state's public disclosure laws by the Clark County Republican Central Committee.

After receiving the notice, AGO staff determined the committee failed to timely file numerous reports of contributions received and expenditures made since 2012.

Washington law requires political committees to regularly report information to the state Public Disclosure Commission about sources of contributions, starting with those over $25. Political committees must also regularly report information about their activities, including expenditures, debts and obligations.

Among the reporting deficiencies, the Clark County Republican Central Committee:

- Failed to timely disclose $586,268.15 in contributions it received on 278 separate reports, up to 330 days late.
- Failed to timely disclose $463,079.30 in expenditures (such as political donations) made on 72 separate reports, up to 130 days late. For example, the committee reported $176,014 in expenses after primary or general elections each year from 2013 through 2017, which should have been disclosed before the relevant election. Of those, $33,720 were contributions to state and local candidates.

By not timely reporting its contributions and expenditures, the committee inhibited the public's right to know the source of the committee's income and how it spent its funding.

The state seeks penalties and injunctive relief. The defendant will have 20 days from the date they are served to respond to the state's complaint.

Senior Assistant Attorney General Linda Dalton is handling the case.

When the Attorney General's Office receives a Citizen Action Notice, it has 45 days to investigate and respond to the citizen. If the Attorney General's Office or local prosecutor does not initiate litigation, the individual may sue in the name of the state. If litigation is successful, any penalties awarded go to the state, and the individual's attorney can recover attorney fees and costs. If the citizen's litigation is unsuccessful, the defendant may recover attorney fees from the state.

The Attorney General's Office enforces the state's campaign finance disclosure law to ensure free, open and fair elections in Washington state. A summary of campaign finance case resolutions is available here.

Complaint: Lack of Reported Campaign Expenditures by Clark County Republican Party

Chuck Green reported 2 days ago (Sun, 28 Aug at 8:33 AM) via Email

To: pdc@pdc.wa.gov

Cc: peryliz@comcast.net

Dear Public Disclosure Commission:

On behalf of Elizabeth Campbell, I am submitting for Public Disclosure Commission review a complaint against the Clark County Republican Party. We have evidence of at least three campaign mailers, supporting certain Republican candidates but also opposing certain Republican candidates, which were mailed prior to the August 2, 2016 Primary election and were noted as being paid for by the Clark County Republican Party (CCRP).

However, a search of PDC reports through August 27, 2016 indicate that the CCRP has reported no expenditures since May 2016, and there is no record of any such expenditures being reported for the development, printing, and postage to mail out these flyers. They are attached to the complaint as exhibits, as is an article from the local newspaper The Columbian from August 27, 2016 which refers to the flyers in question.

You will find three files attached:

- 1) A pdf of the completed complaint form with contact information for the proponents and respondents;
- 2) A pdf of the five (5) exhibits referenced in the complaint
- 3) A scan of the signed Oath statement of Elizabeth Campbell.

Our contact information as well as that of the Respondent are included in the complaint.

Please let us know if you have any questions or need of clarification.

Sincerely,

-Chuck Green

2. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS:

Explain how and when you believe the people/entities you are filing a complaint against violated RCW 42.17/RCW 42.17A or Title 390 WAC. Be as detailed as possible about dates, times, places and acts. If you can, cite which specific laws or rules you believe were violated. Attach additional pages if needed. (Note that the RCW 42.17 citation applies to conduct before 2012 and the RCW 42.17A citation applies to conduct on or after January 1, 2012.)

On at least three occasions prior to the August 2, 2016 Primary election, the Clark County Republican Party printed and mailed thousands of mailers opposing Republican candidates while supporting other Republican candidates. These were mailed to many addresses in Clark County Council District 3 (voters registered: 62,424) and District 4 (voters registered: 70,033); and Legislative District 18 (voters registered: 92,113). The mailers indicate they were paid for by the Clark County Republican Party (CCRP). However, the Public Disclosure Commission report for the CCRP as of August 27, 2016 do not report any expenditures for any of these mailers.

This is a violation of RCW 42.17A.235, Reporting of contributions and expenditures, and possibly RCW 42.17A.260 Special reports—Political advertising if the PDC chooses to consider these Independent Expenditures by the Clark County Republican Central Committee.

These were sent to thousands of households and were not just limited to those registered as Republicans. They were received between July 15 and 24, 2016 which implies there would have been expenditures in June and earlier in July for graphics development and printing, and there would have been expenditures in mid-July for postage.

Evidence and Witnesses

3. EVIDENCE:

List the documents or other evidence you have that support your complaint, if any, and attach copies to this form. If you do not have copies, provide any information you have about where you believe the documents or evidence can be found and how to obtain it. Attach additional pages if needed.

Example: Emails between Joe public and Candidate X, attached OR

Joe Public has emails from Candidate X which describe an illegal campaign donation, and Joe Public's phone number is 555-123-4567.

Exhibits 1-3 are the mailers in question, each highlighting where they indicated they were paid for by the Clark County Republican Party. Note Exhibit 1 appears to be a mailer in support of candidate Liz Pike; however, there is no identifying information as to who paid for the flyer and there are elements and formatting that are the same content as those paid for the Clark County Republican Party, as noted in Exhibits 2 and 3.

Exhibit 4 shows the Clark County Republican Party Central Committee PDC reporting as of August 27, 2016 which shows no reported expenditures since May 31, 2016, and no reported expenditures specific to the mailers in question.

Exhibit 5 is an on-line Columbian article referencing the Clark County Republican Party's involvement in these mailers.

4. WITNESSES:

List the names and contact information, if known, of any witnesses or other persons who have knowledge of facts that support your complaint. Attach additional pages if needed.

Example: Jane Public was present when Candidate X spoke to me about the illegal contribution. Jane Public's address is 123 Main Street, Your Town, USA 12345, and her phone number is 555-123-4567.

ALERT! ATTN: Republicans!

Ever wonder why some "Republicans" vote like Democrats?

What kind of Republican do you want representing you?
Did you know the ballot you have RIGHT NOW will determine what kind of Republican is on your ballot in November? And there are big differences this year! Right now and up until August 2, you can choose between more than one Republican in your County Council race. In November you will likely have only one Republican on the ballot.

What kind of Republican will that be? That's up to you and us! How do you know who is who? One way is to look at their endorsements, another is to look at where their donations come from.

Do you want Democrats to choose your Republican candidate?
In Washington State, voters don't register by party, and there is no loyalty test. Anyone can run as Republican, Democrat, Independent, etc. Each election candidates come forward that are unknown to us and declare they are Republicans. Because our bylaws prevent us from endorsing one Republican candidate over another in a primary, instead of endorsements we bring you this important information.

Prominent Democrats and other "downtown establishment" types have endorsed County Council candidates who declared as Republican. Note that there is a Democrat running in this race yet these progressives are endorsing one of the Republican-declared candidates. Whether you think that is a good or a bad thing, we thought you would like to know.

While the party is unable to make an endorsement in this critical primary race, the Clark County Republican Party believes it is imperative to inform voters about the Republican candidates on their ballot. Here is some information we hope will help in making your decision.

Please see important information on the flip side of this mailer!

Note: this was received by a Democratic household. Reverse side of Exhibits 2 and 3 matches information on Exhibit 1

County Republicans to consider neutrality resolution

Party meeting set for Saturday

By Lauren Dake, Columbian Political Writer

Published: August 26, 2016, 10:00 AM

The Clark County Republican Party made it clear on the colorful campaign advertisement it mailed: The organization cannot make endorsements in a primary race.

But flip the mailer over, and some would argue a different message was clear.

"Why would liberal Democrats endorse Jennifer McDaniel for the Clark County Council?" the mailer read. Later, the flier answered its own question with another: "Could it be they expect McDaniel to vote like a Democrat?"

Below, there's a head shot of candidate Eileen Quiring, noting she has chosen "a conservative we can trust" as her campaign slogan and that most of her donations came from "grass roots Republican activists."

The two Republican candidates and the mailer, paid for by the Clark County Republican Party, are illustrative of a long-standing war that's being waged within the local party ranks. In 2012, a push to elect anti-establishment Republicans or "grass roots Republican activists" to GOP leadership successfully worked to oust the old guard.

Now, some are hoping after a Dec. 3 election among party officers, the local GOP's pendulum could swing the other direction.

Clark County Republican Chair Kenny Smith, however, doesn't foresee any massive shake-up in the party's future.

"I hope there's not a shift back to top-down," he said. "I hope it remains a grass-roots organization and it's my anticipation that it will."

But, Smith added, "This is the proper place for the battle to occur. We've seen a lot of improper ways people have tried to damage the party over the last few years. The proper way is the every other year organizing of the precinct committee officers."

First, on Saturday, the party's rank-and-file members are scheduled to weigh in on the role the party plays when it comes to contested primaries.

Trevor Winton, a precinct committee officer, said the mailer was "effectively taking a position," as an endorsement would.

Quiring ended up receiving 2,901 more votes than McDaniel in the primary, and will face Democrat Roman Battan in November.

Winton plans to present a resolution on Saturday at this weekend's Clark County PCO meeting.

"I want to create clarity about what we're doing, so we don't have these arguments," he said. "We don't want to argue about what's fair and what's not fair, we lose the ability to focus on what's important, which is advancing our core principles."

If adopted, the resolution would call for the Clark County Republican Party's neutrality when it comes to Republican candidates in a contested primary. That would include sharing voter database information or using funds to promote a particular candidate.

"The bylaws, at least the spirit of the bylaws, (say) there should be no taking of a position," Winton said.

[#7897] Complaint: Lack of Reported Campaign Expenditures by Clark County Republican Party : Help and Support

Chuck Green replied a day ago (Wed, 14 Sep at 7:16 AM) to : pdc@pdc.wa.gov , cc : perryliz@comcast.net

Good morning, Jacob. I would like to provide some updated evidence for PDC consideration.

It appears the Clark County Republican Party has updated their contributions and expenditures through August 2016. However, they still do not show any expenditures for the mailers referenced in our complaint.

What they do show is:

1. Contributions from June 2017 (photo attached)
2. Expenditures for the Write in Liz Pike campaign, which was a 2015 Political Committee (photo attached).
3. The Write In Liz Pike campaign does not exist for 2016 (C-1 report for the PC attached showing it was formed for the 2015 general election): Link: <https://web.pdc.wa.gov/rptimg/default.aspx?docid=4518853>

Please let me know if you have any questions.
