2nd Legislative District candidate Amy Pivetta Hoffman accepted an in-kind contribution in excess of the primary election limit and failed to reimburse the contributor for the difference between what was contributed and the maximum allowed contribution.

On June 21st, the Tulalip Tribe sponsored a fundraiser for Amy Pivetta Hoffman which cost $1654.00, exceeding their maximum allowable primary contribution limit of $1000. This can be found on Schedule B of Pivetta Hoffman's C4 that was submitted on July 11th for the time period of June 1st to June 30th.

Per PDC regulations, Pivetta Hoffman should have reimbursed the Tulalip tribe the $654 worth of in-kind contributions that she accepted from them in excess of the primary election limit. She did not do so.

I request that the PDC investigate this matter and take any and all appropriate remedial actions.
