File a Formal Complaint - Melissa Day

Melissaday75 reported 5 days ago (Thu, 4 Aug at 7:52 PM) via Portal Meta

Complaint to Public Disclosure Commission

Candidate: Cynthia (Cindy) Rudek Larsen

Office sought: Snohomish County Superior Court Judge, Position 3

Political Action Committee: A Safer Snohomish County

Factual Basis for Complaint:

On May 30, 2016, Cynthia (Cindy) Rudek Larsen filed a C-1 form with the Public Disclosure Commission declaring herself to be a candidate for Snohomish County Superior Court Judge. The candidate declared the following individuals to be campaign committee officers or individuals authorized to make decisions on behalf of her campaign:

Brooke Davis, Campaign Manager

Ty Trenary, Fundraising Co-Chair

Brooke Davis was also during this period of time the campaign consultant for the Political Action Committee known as "A Safer Snohomish County." In that capacity, Davis received a fee of $24,000 for her services. [see PDC filings]

Sometime prior to the Primary election, Larsen, Trenary, and Snohomish County Prosecutor Mark Roe, all of whom had been actively involved in Larsen's campaign, were photographed at Grand Avenue Park in Everett, which photography was later used in a campaign mailer and online ads in support of Proposition 1, which Safer Snohomish County was actively supporting. The mailer simply identified Larsen as "Cindy Larsen, Everett." [see attached]

As both Larsen's campaign manager and as consultant to the PAC, Brooke Davis engaged in improper coordination in violation of RCW 42.17A and related rules. Further, Larsen, in her role as a judicial candidate, improperly coordinated with the PAC in a manner that would benefit her judicial campaign.

The mailer was received by voters on or about the same date voters received ballots where both Larsen and Proposition 1 appeared.

Larsen failed to disclose any value of this mailing and the online ads as an in kind contribution to her campaign, as is required by law, despite its $53,000 cost. Larsen herself sent out no mailing for her own campaign prior to the Primary election, clearly relying on the exposure by name and photograph she would get from the Safer Snohomish County mailing in which she was prominently featured.

On July 25, 2016, a citizen filed a PDC complaint alleging the above violations.

On August 1, 2016, Safer Snohomish County filed an amended C-6 identifying Larsen as a judicial candidate supported by the PAC but attributing no dollar amount from the mailing to support Larsen's candidacy, nor the online ads in which she is also depicted and quoted. However, during the period this mailing was being created and mailed to voters, Brooke Davis was acting as both Larsen's campaign manager AND consultant to the PAC. Trenary was both Larsen's fundraising chair and a pictured spokesperson for the PAC, and Roe was actively working on Larsen's campaign (hosted a fundraising event for her) and a pictured spokesperson for the PAC.

On the same date – August 1, 2016 – Larsen herself filed an amended C-1 removing Davis, and Trenary from her list of authorized committee members and staff. However, all three were key agents of both campaigns during the pre-Primary period in question when the illegal coordination took place.

Larsen went on to become the top vote-getter in the Primary without doing any campaign mailing herself.

Both the candidate, Cindy Larsen, and the PAC Safer Snohomish County have violated RCW 42.17A and related rules.
