File a Formal Complaint - Beth Lucas

I received a flyer for Proposition 1 in Snohomish County. On the page 1 and page 3 are pictures of Cindy Larsen a judicial candidate for Snohomish County Superior Court endorsing the proposition. It came out the same day as the ballots when most candidates have their mailers delivered.

On Page 4 are pictures of Sheriff Trenary and Prosecutor Mark Roe both who support Larsen on her campaign for judge.

Does this violate any PDC laws that would require Larsen to declare this as an in-kind donation? Also is it lawful for Safer Snohomish County to use Larsen on their mailer knowing that she is running for a judicial position without putting some type of notification on the mailer?

The judicial canons also say that judicial candidates and judges can only endorse other judges and judicial races. Has Larsen and Safer Snohomish County violated this?

"WE NEED MORE POLICE AND SHERIFF PROTECTION, and proven solutions, to address the public safety crisis facing our communities.

PROP 1 IS A SMALL INVESTMENT for real peace of mind.

I'm voting YES. - Cindy Larsen, Everett

Solutions That Work

Proposition 1 is a thoughtful, comprehensive investment in solutions to these problems. We need stronger enforcement of laws, but we also must recognize that factors that contribute to higher crime. Proposition 1 will:

- ✓ Put more police officers in our neighborhoods;
- ✓ Provide police the resources they need to be successful;
- ✓ Reduce police response times;
- ✓ invest in treatment for drug addiction and mental illness;
- ✓ Help reduce and prevent homelessness.
