File a Formal Complaint - Richard Offner

Rickoffner reported (Mon, 22 Oct at 1:58 PM)

Voters in LD26 have received a very confusing mailer that tells them to write-in Nathan Schlicher instead of voting for Connie Fitzpatrick. This is a serious DIRTY TRICKS mailer that Glen Morgan and Peter Zieve. It is part of a string of misleading and straight up fraudulent mailers sent to progressive voters in Washington State (see attached photo of the of the mailer). These mailers encourage people to write in another candidate rather than voting for the established progressive/Democratic (and so far as we can tell, female) candidate, without the write-in's knowledge, and claim to be from progressive groups like Fuse Washington and Planned Parenthood. The mailers are not from these groups, but are instead funded by a Republican PAC run by Glen Morgan. They are meant specifically to confuse and divide the Democratic voters in this state, and are convincing looking enough that they may succeed in doing so. This is voter suppression at the extreme. It's time to write in a real progressive.

"Nathan Schlicher is a doctor, a leader of government transparency, and was an effective champion of the 26th while serving his appointment in the Senate in 2013. As an emergency room doctor and an attorney, Schlicher is particularly well-qualified to expand access to health care and fight for healthier communities. Schlicher will focus on creating jobs, supporting mental health services, and increasing government transparency, particularly in the budget." Fuse WA Progressive Voters Guide, (ProgressiveVoterGuide.org)
