File a Formal Complaint - Thrinley DiMarco

Thrinley (Tue, 30 Oct 2018 at 5:14 PM)

A search of the internet shows that Netbrands Media is a one-person business that sells silicone wrist bands and other imprinted items (<https://24hourwristbands.com/>) but not "website" services. It has been the subject of successful federal prosecution for price fixing of imprinted items: (<https://mlexmarketinsight.com/insights-center/editors-picks/antitrust/north-america/whistleblower-calls-out-encrypted-promotional-products-cartel>).

An inspection of the website for Mr. Power shows a home-style two-page website. <http://www.nickpowerattorney.com/>

The contributions of NETBRANDS MEDIA to the website should be itemized.

What impact does the alleged violation(s) have on the public?

The public deserves to know what contributions are made to a prosecuting attorney in Washington State by NETBRANDS MEDIA, a syndicate of websites for imprint services that has been the subject of a federal prosecution for price fixing. Simply showing the word "website" when the candidate's website is so minimal is insufficient. Mr. Power Filed a C-4 on October 16 which shows an expenditure on 9/5/2018 to a vendor "NETBRANDS MEDIA" in Houston, Texas for "website" in the amount of $302.92. (See 100866703)
