Dear Mr. Fox Blackhorn:

You have alleged violations of Chapter 42.17A RCW for failure to timely register a political committee, report contributions and expenditures, over-limit contributions and to Disclose Proper Sponsor ID on political advertising.

Here are my comments:

-I do not know N. Power and have never met him

-I am completely unaware of whether he has a PAC or does not have one nor have I had any contact with any such group

-I do not belong to any group having to do with N. Power or any political point of view

-I gave $250 to the San Juan Journal here to support this candidate as part of a belief in government; I have made no other contributions and have no expenses

-I have had no input on any writing or thinking about any ad or any campaign plan or strategy

Are you telling me that a random contribution of $250 to the newspaper for a local candidate is a violation of something? This is shocking.
