Dear Tammy and Tabatha, Is this the kind of treatment we can expect next from Norm Smith and FANSS and Newport Silicon Smelter Dialloge for Our Community? This is not OK!

Not a political organization. That's a good one. Well tbh they 'tried' to be political and were summarily rejected by both counties. Just the latest in a long string of losses they are taking. This town has had enough of their nonsense. Back to reality.

How can anyone expect this response to be taken seriously?

The first question I would ask is, "What the hell is this Naylor person smoking?"

Norm Smith maybe you could try to sit with the Board and explain the rules and regs. of the non profit world. They have a lot of turnover in their Board members. They were not receptive to my guidance. I know this like the back of my hand. Perhaps I am too blunt and it was received with defensiveness. Perhaps there is another person with the knowledge who could help? I believe they mean well. But yes, they should know better.

They shouldn't need an explanation. There are many sources that can guide an organization like CANSS

Yep imagine that one has consistently voted while the other one who has had issue filling paperwork has only recently started voting this year

My philosophy has always been, if you don't vote you have no right to complain.

Oct. 17. He reports spending $4,297. Manus reports $5,284 in loans, mainly from himself.

Miller has yet to report any donations or expenditures to the PDC. She has been fined $250 by the PDC for not reporting and is appealing that fine. According to her response posted on the PDC website, Miller says she had computer problems, which caused her to not be able to send or receive emails. She said she would be able to file reports by Oct. 22. According to a PDC spokesperson, the PDC has been having its own computer problems. The spokesperson couldn't say for sure whether Miller's filings have been received.
