ADDENDUM FACTUAL AND LEGAL ALLEGATIONS

1. This Addendum Complaint in support of the original Complaint filed January 22, 2012 is additionally filed pursuant to those allegations of violations of the Washington State Campaign laws, and the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) regulations and policies promulgated there under RCW 42.17(A), RCW 28A.320.090, and WAC 390-05-[271,273].
2. As detailed in the factual allegations provided with the original complaint, this addendum and previous information and evidence submitted by formal complaint indicates that the Evergreen School District, its Superintendent, and with its supporting political action committee (PAC), "Evergreen Citizens for Schools", did unilaterally and collectively violate those state campaign laws in the following manner.¹

¹ "The combination of a number of activities into a coordinated campaign involving close coordination between district activities and citizens' committee activities which closely resembles traditional election campaign activities and which is targeted at and/or occurs close in time to a school district ballot measure election is likely to draw close scrutiny and careful consideration by the PDC as to whether a violation has occurred." PDC Guidelines, revised 9/28/06. Based on this PDC policy guideline, the use of public TV cable facilities to display PAC promotional campaign buttons during the levy broadcast should be investigated for a violation.

FEB - 9 2012

Public Disclosure Commission

- a. By authorizing the Superintendent and the Chief Operating Officer of the District to openly wear "Vote Yes" levy buttons during District produced and publically funded cable television programs and distributed via YouTube² for the promotion of that levy ballot proposition.
- b. By coordinating informational activities with campaign efforts of the "Evergreen Citizens for Schools" in the use of publically funded cable television programs to display "Vote Yes" campaign buttons provided by that PAC for the promotion of that levy ballot proposition.³
- c. By authorizing the Superintendent the use of publically funded cable television programs to solicit and express his own personal views, voicing his own personal disparaging comments and personal criticisms of levy opponents in open rebuttal to their circulated levy opposition post cards.⁴
- d. By coordinating informational activities with the campaign efforts of the "Evergreen Citizens for Schools" in the use of publically funded cable television programs to publicize a conducted survey designed to shore up support for this ballot measure.⁵

3. In order to address these violations, the complainant requests that the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission include this complaint addendum and investigate the District to determine

² The District authorized the distribution of the publically funded TV program to YouTube at addresses and all four parts of the video should be considered for evidence of violations described:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VpWb4tRbZNc&feature=youtu.be&list=PL2807B96A3371572C&t=10m21s>
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QJVJM3dS7cY&feature=related>

⁴ Superintendent John Deeder does not have a statutory right to express his personal views, debasing and demonizing those opposed to the school levy and doing so while appearing on a publicly funded TV program, using district facilities, for which such actions do not represent the normal and regular conduct of his office. The inappropriateness of Supt. Deeder's following excerpt comments overstepped the bounds of what was to have been a strictly public informational TV program about the levy. The postcard topics chosen by moderator, Sharon Mitchell appeared staged to allow the district an opportunity to take shots at levy opposition not bonafied questions from the public.

RE: Student Math Competency

Deeder: "So, if he wants to make that criticism, he needs to make that criticism national rather than localize as much as he would like to..."

RE: Administrative Pay Increases

Deeder: "I am not sure where this gentleman gets his information, but it's bogus, it's not factual. And I would also say that this individual is willing to hurt 27,000 kids by encouraging people to vote no on something because he is upset with some people inside the district which is a pretty shallow mentality. And he continues to demonstrate that because he did that same thing in the last levy election" whether any or all of the alleged violations are in conflict with state campaign laws, strictly enforce those laws, and remedy any unlawful conduct.

⁵ Superintendent John Deeder made direct reference on the public TV program to a survey conducted and purported by him to have been funded by the "Evergreen Citizens for Schools" PAC. However, there is no record of reported expenditures to the PDC subsequent to any previous levy or bond measure. If in fact the PAC expended such funds and did not declare it – that is a disclosure violation. We require that the PDC approach the District and the supporting PAC to produce disclosure of the source of funds expended for this survey, why it was not reported by the PAC, and determine a further violation as it was presented by Supt. Deeder to shore up support for this ballot measure.

JURISDICTION

4. The Washington State Public Disclosure Commission is responsible for ensuring compliance with state campaign laws, receiving information about, investigating, and remedying violations of RCW 42.17(A), RCW 28A.320.090, and WAC 390-05-[271,273].
5. The complainant has not filed this complaint with any other agency or institution.
6. Given the ongoing nature of the violations documented, this complaint addendum is timely.

RELIEF REQUESTED

27. The complainant requests that:

- a. Washington State Public Disclosure Commission consider all previous submitted information, attention to attachments and footnote information herein, and investigate the Evergreen School District, its Superintendent, and its supporting political action committee (PAC), "Evergreen Citizens for Schools" for violation of state statute defined under RCW 42.17A.[225,550,555].
- b. Washington State Public Disclosure Commission take all necessary steps to remedy any unlawful conduct identified in its investigation of the District and its collaborative PAC including imposing civil remedies and sanctions defined under RCW 42.17A.750.
- c. If any violations are found, the Washington State Public Disclosure Commission secure assurances of compliance by the District and its collaborative PAC, as well as full remedies for the violations found.
- d. Washington State Public Disclosure Commission monitor any resulting corrective action required by the District, and/or the "Evergreen Citizens for Schools" PAC, to ensure that compliance with state campaign law is achieved.

I certify (or declare) on this date of February 9, 2012 in the county of Clark, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the facts set forth in this complaint addendum are true and correct.

Kurt: Our treasurer, Pat Norby replied via email on Oct. 4. I'm not sure if the attached files were too large to go through to your email. The body of her email is below. I will attempt to send the docs to you one at a time, so they will hopefully go through. I will also print the documents and mail them to you tomorrow. My apologies for any inconvenience.

Subject: Evergreen Citizens for Schools

Dear Pat and Joni,

This e-mail is a follow-up to our telephone conversation and voice message from this afternoon.

As we discussed, I inherited a number of Investigative cases when PDC staff member Randy Unruh's position was eliminated at the end of August due to budget issues. One of those cases is the Evergreen Citizens for Schools. After reviewing the file, PDC staff has an additional request for information concerning the Evergreen Citizens for Schools and Mr. Rossmiller's complaint as follows:

1. Please provide a copy of the survey questions and results conducted by Conkling, Fiskum, & McCormick, Inc. on behalf of Evergreen Citizens for Schools and paid for on October 22, 2008. In addition, please provide a copy of the invoice from Conkling, Fiskum, & McCormick, Inc for the survey work. I have attached copies of the survey questions and the responses. I have also attached a copy of the invoice for the survey work.
2. Please provide a copy of the advertisements that were paid for by Evergreen Citizens for Schools to the Columbian on July 15, 2008, totaling $9,682. If it was the same advertisement that ran multiple times, only one copy of the advertisement is necessary. However, please provide a list of dates that the advertisement ran. In addition, please provide a copy of the invoice from the Columbian for the ad(s). Ads were run May 6, 7, 11, and 13 requesting voter support. A "thank you" ad (copy attached) was run on May 29. I have requested copies of the earlier ads, and will forward them to you when I receive them. An estimated partial payment of the first ads was made on June 3. The Columbian invoice dated May 31 was originally sent to the former treasurer, Michael Wade, at his home address. It was only after I received a phone call that we were past due that an updated invoice was sent to the correct address and paid that same week of July 15.

3. Please provide a brief response e-mail concerning the survey and Columbian advertisements, providing information about:

(1) when the decision was made to conduct the survey and run the advertisements; The following response was prepared by Terri O'Hara, Co-Chair during the 2008 campaign.

The plan for advertisements was determined in the beginning of the campaign planning in March. The specific dates were revised throughout the campaign. Just before the election, ECS made the decision to run additional ads because we had sufficient funds in the budget. The decision to run the survey was made a couple weeks after the election as ECS was reviewing the campaign and making notes for how to run future bond campaigns.

- (2) when the orders were placed for both expenditures and by whom; The orders were placed with the Columbian throughout the campaign with the final ad run after the election to thank the voters. Shannon Beecher was the ECS messaging chair that placed these orders with the Columbian. The order for the survey was placed by Terri O'Hara, co-chair of ECS in June, 2008.

- (3) when did the information concerning the survey and advertisements get communicated to Ms. Norby and by whom; and (4) how was the survey used, and whom it was shared with. Ms. Norby was informed of the estimated charges from the Columbian in May. The final invoice did not get to Ms. Norby until mid July, mainly due to the incorrect mailing address being used by The Columbian.

The estimates for the survey costs were discussed with Ms. Norby in mid July when the final agreements on the survey were concluded. Unfortunately, the first invoice sent was never received by ECS. It wasn't until Oct. 2008 that the invoice was received by Ms. Norby.

NOTE from Pat Norby - I have copies of emails dated September 9, 2008 between Mrs. O'Hara and Tom Eiland of Conkling, Fiskum & McCormick discussing that an invoice had not yet been received. An email copy of the invoice was sent on October 2, 2008

Hello, this is _____ of CFM Research, a public opinion research company. We are conducting a survey about education issues among people in the Evergreen School District on behalf of Evergreen Citizens for Schools. Have I reached (# from list)? IF NO: TERMINATE.

IF YES: Do you have a few minutes to answer some questions about current issues in the Evergreen School District.

1. First, students are often given the grades A, B, C, D and Fail to denote the quality of their performance. Suppose the public schools in your community were graded the same way. What grade would you give the Evergreen School District for its overall performance?

Dear Mr. Stutzman:

Thank you for the opportunity to reply to Mr. Rossmiller's complaint against Evergreen Citizens for Schools, Case #12-158. In order to deliver my response to you in a timely manner, I will send my response both electronically and by US Mail.

Upon being notified of the complaint, I reviewed the PDC's updated booklet "Political Committee Campaign Disclosure Instructions" on the PDC website. I have been reporting to the PDC based upon my understanding that Evergreen Citizens for Schools is classified as a "Single election year political committee(s), such as bond or levy committee(s), which frequently will end one campaign and then continue to exist to support a future bond or levy campaign(s)." According to page 63 of the booklet, "These types of committees take the following steps to start a new campaign.

- Once activity has ceased after the election, file a final C-4 report.
- When the committee organizes for the next campaign, it files a new registration (C-1pc) for the next campaign.
- The surplus carried forward from the old campaign is reported on Line 1 of the first C-4 for the new campaign. "

That is the process that I have used in reporting.

Please accept my apology for the error in failing to report the expenditure for the public opinion survey regarding the voter's reasons for failing the bond. The invoice for this survey was received after I filed the final report for the 2008 campaign, but should have been included as part of the campaign expenses. As a result, I have corrected the files and submitted amended reports for the 2008, 2010, and 2012 elections, taking care to account for all expenditures and receipts that occurred during and between those campaigns. I will be extremely diligent in documenting and reporting all transactions that occur in the future.

Please contact me if you have any questions about the amended reports.

Sincerely,

Pat Norby
