(Note that the RCW 42.17 citation applies to conduct before 2012 and the RCW 42.17A citation applies to conduct on or after January 1, 2012.)

The PDC filings of forms C3 clearly indicate a pattern of "book keepers" for companies owned by Bill Littlejohn (Olympic Ambulance) and his retirement home in Sequim "Sherwood Assisted Living" along with employees Olympic Ambulance, Olympic Oxygen service technicians, Fleet Managers with Olympic Ambulance, billing Manager with Olympic Ambulance, Administrators with Olympic Ambulance all donating from $1,000 to $1,250 to this campaign, It is HIGHLY SUSPECT that these individuals did this out of their concern for a levy in another city! This is clearly a violation of RCW42.17A.485 a person may not, directly or indirectly, reimburse another person for a contribution to a candidate for public office, political committee, or political party. In addition, RCW 42.17A.495 (1) No employer or labor organization may increase the salary of an officer or employee, or compensate an officer, employee, or other person or entity, with the intention that the increase in salary, or the compensation, or a part of it, be contributed or spent to support or oppose a candidate, state official against whom recall charges have been filed, political party, or political committee.

RE: PDC Case # 14-013

Dear Mr. Stutzman,

Please be advised this was an ugly campaign with an abundance of slanderous allegations by Mr. DeRousie and Mr. Phillips.

The intent of the Levy was to replace the service of Olympic Ambulance with a Fire Department taxpayer funded service. This would have adversely affected many of our employees who live in both Sequim and Port Angeles. No employees were reimbursed for contributions made to Citizens Against Fire District 2 Levy, and no employees received an increase in salary to fund a donation.

I have a financial interest in both Olympic Ambulance and Sherwood Assisted Living.

Sincerely,

William Littlejohn

Re: PDC Case No. 14-013

Dear Mr. Young:

I am responding to your letter dated February 11, 2014, regarding the Fire District 2 Levy Campaign. This response is on behalf of Bill Littlejohn.

- Did Mr. Littlejohn make contributions to Citizens Against prior District 2 Levy Committee in the name of other contributors?

Yes.

- Summary regarding contributions.

In September 2013, Mr. Littlejohn asked a number of people whether he could make a contribution on their behalf to the Committee opposing the Fire District 2 Levy. He asked each individual if he could make a contribution on their behalf to the Committee. The conversations took place over the course of about a week. The names of the individuals and the amounts of the contribution made on their behalf are reflected in the Form C-3s attached to this response.

The contributions were made in cash, accompanied by a list showing the contributor information and amount.

- Contribution information.

The total contributions that Mr. Littlejohn made on behalf of the named individuals was $7,500.00. The money was contributed on two occasions, on or about September 19 and September 27, 2013. On September 19, $2,500.00 was contributed, along with the information about the individuals on whose behalf the contribution was being made. The September 27 contributions were handled similarly. When the contribution was ready, Mr. Littlejohn had whoever was at the office front desk at that time call the Committee to let them know that there was a contribution for the Committee. Someone from the Committee picked up the contribution. The list showing contributor information was the only communication provided to the Committee regarding the contributions.

- Reasons for the contributions.

Relations with the Chief of Fire District No. 2 had been tense for some time. The Chief had made demands on Mr. Littlejohn's company to permanently locate aid cars in each of the fire stations operated by the District. The District's call volume did not warrant full-time staffing of each station with paramedics. Mr. Littlejohn believed that the Chief's push for a levy to establish permanent paramedic staffing was a result of the objection to the Chief's assertion that there was any need for full-time staffing at each station in the largely rural, sparsely populated district.

Mr. Littlejohn further feared that if he contributed to the Campaign opposing the Chief's plan, that his company would suffer further retaliation. In fact, the Fire Chief has retaliated, seeking to bar Olympic Ambulance from even operating within the geographic boundaries of the Fire District, something that is beyond his legal authority to do.

Mr. Littlejohn has suffered retaliation in the past for participating in Fire District levy campaigns. In a similar levy in Mason County, he supported the opposition. Following the defeat of the levy, the fire union barred its members from working for Olympic Ambulance or any of Mr. Littlejohn's companies. His political participation has been limited and he had no understanding of the basics, let alone the details, of Washington's campaign finance laws.

Very truly yours,

LIVENGOOD, FITZGERALD
& ALSKOG, PLLC

Bill Littlejohn In-person Interview
PDC Case No. 14-013
June 5, 2014

The following are excerpts from a recorded in-person investigative interview conducted under oath with Bill Littlejohn in PDC Case No. 14-013.

- Kurt Young, PDC Compliance Officer, and Phil Stutzman, PDC Director of Compliance conducted an investigative interview with Bill Littlejohn in PDC Case No. 14-013. John J. White, an attorney with the firm Livengood Alskog, was also present, representing Mr. Littlejohn.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that when he approached some of his employees about making contributions to CAFD 2 Levy, he asked if any had a problem with him making a contribution in their name.
- Mr. Littlejohn said he approached the employees he was close to and knew well. He said he spoke to the employees when they were alone, and sought permission to use their name as contributors to CAFD2 Levy.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that none of the employees he spoke with expressed any reservations about letting their names be used as contributors. When he was asked whether he asked John Schonig for permission to make a contribution in his name to CAFD 2 Levy committee, Mr. Littlejohn said he thought he had asked for permission.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated when he spoke to his employees; he did not state or imply that making a contribution to the PAC in their name was similar to making a charitable contribution in their name. He said he did not promise any employees payment, compensation, or other rewards for allowing him to list their names as contributors.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that he made the contributions in the name of others, rather than in his own name, because he was trying to keep a "low profile." He stated that the ballot measure was a threat to some of his businesses, and he did not think there was a problem in making the contributions in the manner in which they were made.
- He was asked about his employee's statements that Mr. Littlejohn received "negative press" for contributions he made to oppose a 2010 Mason County Fire District annexation ballot measure. He said it was not so much negative press, as it was fall-out from taking on the fire district and firefighters "brotherhood." He said he made the contributions to Citizens Against Annexation using his personal funds.
- Mr. Littlejohn said that the 2010 Annexation measure involved Mason County Fire District No. 5 merging with the City of Shelton, which if approved would have reduced the service area for Olympia Ambulance. He stated that his experience with the fire district concerning the contributions he made to oppose the 2010 ballot measure influenced how he orchestrated his 2013 contributions to CAFD2 Levy.

- Mr. Littlejohn stated that he has been in the ambulance business for many years, and has provided the only ambulance service in the Port Angeles and Sequim areas, as well as rural areas on the Peninsula prior to fire districts providing that service. He stated that he has worked closely with many fire districts in the counties in which Olympic Ambulance operates, and provided some of the first ambulance, EMT and first responder services prior to the fire districts providing their own services. He stated that he was doing that type of work long before they began doing it.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that he did not make a withdrawal of cash from any bank or financial institution to make the contributions. He said he went to see Corrine Notar, Bookkeeper for Olympic Ambulance, and told her he needed cash, and she gave it to him. He said he used the cash to make the contributions to CAFD 2 Levy. He said that he wrote instructions about how CAFD 2 Levy was to attribute the cash contributions to each of his employees, and then placed the cash in an envelope.
- Mr. Littlejohn said that he left the envelope with the cash and instructions with a staff person at the front desk for CAFD 2 Levy to pick up, and contacted Eric Foth with the committee. He said he informed Mr. Foth that an envelope with the contributions was ready to be picked up at the front desk. He said he thought he contacted Eric on two separate occasions concerning picking up contributions for CAFD 2 levy.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that other than a meeting with Mr. Foth prior to making the contributions, his contacts with him were limited to giving him the contributions. He said he had nothing to do with CAFD 2 Levy, and was not a committee decision maker. He said that other than contacting CAFD 2 Levy about the two cash contributions, he had no contact with the committee. He said no one from the committee asked about the cash contributions.
- Mr. Littlejohn confirmed that he made a "personal draw" of cash from Olympic Ambulance, to make the contributions.
- Mr. Littlejohn confirmed that he made the contributions using cash in order to avoid leaving a paper trail.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that he was the principal decision-maker, and the only person involved with making contributions on behalf of his employees, using cash. He stated that he briefly discussed this issue with his manager, Kim Droppert, formerly Kim Doyle, but said he did not seek permission to use her name because she managed his businesses. He said that Ms. Doyle has worked for him for approximately 15 years.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated Ms. Doyle ran the 2010 Citizens Against Annexation (CAA) committee, and was much more involved in the issue since she lived in Mason County. He stated that he did not have anything to do with the formation or running of that committee, but acknowledged having conversations with Ms. Doyle about the campaign. He stated that he willingly gave the contributions to CAA since the proposed annexation would have affected a good chunk of Olympic Ambulance's Mason County business. He said he believed Ms. Doyle asked him for the contributions, but that he was not involved with any of the decisions or the content of any of CAA political advertisements.

- Mr. Littlejohn stated that he was not sure of the exact date when he decided he was going to make cash contributions for the 2013 election, but said it was probably early September 2013. He said his decision was not influenced by the formation of CAFD 2 Levy.
- Mr. Littlejohn stated that he did not know GC Baiz; AR Stowell; or Jessica Sumners. He said he did not provide the funds for their contributions.
- Mr. Littlejohn was asked why he made the statement in the last sentence of his January 3, 2014, response letter, "No employees were reimbursed for contributions made to Citizens Against Fire District 2 Levy, and no employees received an increase in salary to fund a donation." He said his response was in answer to the question asked by PDC staff in its December 23, 2013 complaint letter. He stated that staff's question was pretty specific, and he answered it.
