2. ALLEGED VIOLATIONS:

Explain how and when you believe the people/entities you are filing a complaint against violated RCW 42.17/RCW 42.17A or Title 390 WAC. Be as detailed as possible about dates, times, places and acts. If you can, cite which specific laws or rules you believe were violated. Attach additional pages if needed. (Note that the RCW 42.17 citation applies to conduct before 2012 and the RCW 42.17A citation applies to conduct on or after January 1, 2012.)

Chris Hurst violated RCW 42.17A.710 by failing to properly fill out his F1 disclosure form. He further violated RCW 42.17A.305 by failing to include sponsor information on his political attack letter against Darrel Dickson dated August 21st, 2015, which was sent to every registered voter in Enumclaw City Limits. Additionally, Hurst exceeded the allowable amount of in-kind donations to his daughter's campaign by sponsoring a political attack letter mailed to all Enumclaw registered voters and setting up a website attacking Councilmember Dickson.

Background

1) Chris Hurst violated RCW 42.17A.710 by failing to properly fill out his F1 disclosure form.

Specifically, Hurst listed his legislative office phone number – (360) 786-7866 – as the main contact number on his F1. You can see that this number is his office's number here. Additionally, Hurst has put crosses in boxes that should have been left blank.

The asterisk next to the box where officials are asked to list their phone numbers specifically state that you cannot use public agency addresses or telephone numbers for contact information. Listing his official office number as a contact point for what amounts to a campaign related form may also constitute a violation of RCW 42.17A.555.

2) Hurst violated RCW 42.17A.305 by failing to include sponsor information on his political attack letter against Darrel Dickson dated August 21st, 2015, which was sent to every registered voter in Enumclaw City Limits.

Hurst's letter, which includes a number of unsubstantiated attacks against Dickson, was a politically driven attempt to induce voters to elect his daughter Kim Lauk. The opening line of his letter "in response to numerous complaints by citizens and elected officials reporting conflicts of interest by some city council members, I am asking the State Attorney General's Office, State Public Disclosure Commission and State Auditor to conduct a thorough investigation into the personal finances and business interests of several of our council members as they relate to land use and zoning proposals" is also likely a violation of RCW 42.17A.335 (1), which prohibits libel and defamation.

Hurst has been repeatedly asked by members of the community to identify these citizens and elected officials, but has not been able to do so. This is due to the fact that these complaints are fabricated.

3) Hurst exceeded the allowable amount of in-kind donations to his daughter's campaign by sponsoring a political attack letter mailed to all Enumclaw registered voters and setting up a website attacking Councilmember Dickson.

RCW 42.17A.005 (36) defines political advertising as "any advertising displays, newspaper ads, billboards, signs, brochures, articles, tabloids, flyers, letters, radio or television presentations, or other means of mass communication, used for the purpose of appealing, directly or indirectly, for votes or for financial or other support or opposition in any election campaign.

The webpage "investigateenumclaw.com" was set up by Hurst to motivate Enumclaw residents to vote against Darrel Dickson. This qualifies as political advertising per the above referenced statute. Hurst purchased the domain name through Godaddy.com, which likely cost between $50-100. This, along with his mass-mailing that went to all registered voters in Enumclaw, likely constitutes an in-kind donation to Lauk's campaign in excess of the $500 threshold established under the PDC's "mini-reporting" option. Lauk opted to use the "mini-reporting" option when she filed her C1. Additionally, there is no sponsor information on the webpage that identifies which political committee paid for the webpage to be set up.

3. EVIDENCE:

List the documents or other evidence you have that support your complaint, if any, and attach copies to this form. If you do not have copies, provide any information you have about where you believe the documents or evidence can be found and how to obtain it. Attach additional pages if needed.

Example: Emails between Joe public and Candidate X, attached OR

Joe Public has emails from Candidate X which describe an illegal campaign donation, and Joe Public's phone number is 555-123-4567.

Hurst's F1 Filing with the PDC

Hurst's letter dated August 21st, 2015, which was sent to every registered voter in Enumclaw City Limits.

4. WITNESSES:

List the names and contact information, if known, of any witnesses or other persons who have knowledge of facts that support your complaint. Attach additional pages if needed.

Example: Jane Public was present when Candidate X spoke to me about the illegal contribution. Jane Public's address is 123 Main Street, Your Town, USA 12345, and her phone number is 555-123-4567.

Washington State Public Disclosure Commission
Instructions for Filing a Formal Complaint

➤ When to use the formal complaint form:

While this form is not required, its use is recommended when you want to file formal allegations of a violation of the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) statutes or rules. You can find the PDC statutes and rules on the PDC website at www.pdc.wa.gov.

If you have information or concerns about a possible violation but do not wish to file a complaint, please contact the PDC office directly.

➤ How to submit your complaint form to the PDC:

- Complete all sections. If you do not have some information, please write "unknown" instead of leaving a blank space.
- Attach copies of any evidence you have - we'll contact you if we need originals.
- Sign the oath if your complaint is against an elected official or a candidate for elective office.
- Mail, fax, or email your complaint and all attachments to the PDC.

➤ If you have more questions:

If you have more questions about filing a complaint, see the "Frequently Asked Questions about Filing a Complaint" guide available on the PDC's website at www.pdc.wa.gov under "Enforcement and Compliance." You may also contact the PDC directly.

August 21, 2015

Dear Judith,

In response to numerous complaints by citizens and elected officials reporting conflicts of interest by some city council members, I am asking the State Attorney General, State Public Disclosure Commission and State Auditor to conduct a thorough investigation into the personal finances and business interests of several of our council members as they relate to land use decisions and zoning proposals. I am also asking Mayor Reynolds to propose new local Ethics and Code of Conduct laws and a new Citizens Oversight Board to prevent improper or illegal actions by councilmembers.

State laws prohibit elected officials or government employees from using their position for personal gain. For instance, as a State Representative, it would be illegal for me to propose or vote on legislation that could directly or indirectly increase the value of a property or business that a family member, employee, associate or I owned or had a financial interest in.

Citizen concerns and recent news stories are resulting in a backlash against proposed zoning changes and massive new development in Enumclaw. Some council members are in the real estate speculation and property management business and own and manage properties in the vicinity of the 150 acre Thomas Farm, which is the subject of some of the recent concerns. As a result of this citizen backlash, on July 18th Councilmembers Dickson, Overland and Carstens published a letter to the editor making it look like they do not support massive overdevelopment in Enumclaw. However, a series of Freedom of Information Act requests for council member's official emails tell a very different story. By early 2014 some council members began trying to return the development rights to the Thomas Farm and turn it into a huge development.

At a council work session several councilmembers said farmland in Enumclaw is a "blight" and called for these lands to be developed. But we citizens bought those development rights with our hard earned tax dollars many years ago. We paid for these development rights when farmers were willing to sell them to protect our rural lifestyle and because we didn't want our kids and grandkids living in an overcrowded crime and gang infested concrete jungle. We wanted to keep these lands out of the hands of greedy real estate speculators forever and protect our historic community.

Farms, farmland and families are the heart and soul of what our community has always been and should always be in the future. I grew up and raised my family here. As a young man I worked in the woods as a logger and eventually went into police work. I entered the legislature to protect our community and our way of life. I now feel as if everything we treasure and value is under assault. A Fred Meyer and Walmart, which were proposed by some council members, are not what we need and would end up shutting down many if not most of our local small businesses that are the current backbone of our local economy.

The July 18th letter by Dickson, Overland and Carstens appeared to show them in opposition to new development, but here is a small sample of their emails which you can read for yourself and then make up your own mind as to their actual intent:

On April 22, 2014 Councilwoman Carstens writes to Mayor Reynolds, "Would the two of you be able to meet with Darrel and myself regarding the Development rights on the Thomas Farm. We would really like to be able to get this put together." On the 15th of April, Councilman Dickson had written to King County Councilman Reagan Dunn about, "Options available for the removal of the development rights on the Thomas Farm."

On May 2, 2014 Councilman Overland writes to Councilman Darrel Dickson and says, "I really think we are on the verge of some very big residential growth and I think we need to make sure that everything is ready to go."

On April 21, 2014 Councilman Dickson wrote to Councilwoman Carstens and Councilman Overland alerting them about 65,000 wealthy Chinese citizens whose immigration applications were recently denied by Canada. Dickson urged Carstens and Overland to get in touch with a man named Wayne Michael who could help in getting EB-5 visas for these 65,000 people as part of an "immigrant investor program" and that this was a, "Very interesting concept that could attract dollars to our community." Dickson wrote to Overland and Carstens in another email, "Please go to the link below and learn how forming an EB-5 Regional Investor center in Enumclaw may benefit our community."

On February 4, 2014 Overland wrote to Dickson about getting a 160,000 square foot Fred Meyer store in Enumclaw, "I spoke to my regional contact at Fred Meyer, as I think both of you know, I have been working this angle since just after the election." He also says, "Our projected housing growth and South Black Diamond's growth need to be key points."

As far back as December 19th of 2013, Overland indicated in an email to Rich Menti of Meriweather Advisors LLC about bringing major growth to Enumclaw and that he was working with other council members to develop Enumclaw farmland. He says, "We will also be starting work with the County and the State to unlock a large parcel of land that is now a dairy." He offers to help this company and its efforts to turn Enumclaw farmland into developments.

These are but a very few of the emails concerning massive development of the Enumclaw area that tell a very different story from the July 18th letter to the editor. I paid for this letter to you myself because folks in Enumclaw need to know what is going on and to think about how 65,000 new residents would impact our historic rural community.

On one final note, my daughter, Kimberly Lauk, is running for an Enumclaw City Council seat this November, and although that is not my reason for writing to you today, I didn't want to be accused of obscuring or hiding that information. This letter is not intended to direct or guide you in your voting decision in that or any other race, but rather to provide you with information about the future of our town.

Sincerely,

Christopher Hurst

| Letter to Enumclaw Citizens | Investigation Request | Secretary of State Department | State Auditor | State Auditor | Investigation Request |

Dear Citizens of Enumclaw

In August I sent a letter to you in an attempt to inform you about important matters concerning your Enumclaw City Council pending legal issues affecting our community and the lack of proper and comprehensive city rules concerning Code of Conduct and Ethics Violations for local elected officials. The response to the letter has been overwhelming. My phone has been ringing off the hook with folks calling and thanking me and wanting to get involved in the future of our community. That is great and just what I wanted to happen.

Many have asked for more information and a copy of the actual request for investigation that I have filed with state officials. The problem is that the document is 62 pages long and too expensive to copy and send to folks so I am going to post all of it here along with the documentation that supports it to anyone who wants to do so can look at it for themselves and see what it contains. It is a public document and people have a right to see it.

I have said for this posting myself. It is not part of any campaign for or against anyone. My only intent is to inform people about what is happening here in Enumclaw what is going on and urging them to get involved in protecting the future of our great historic rural community. One interesting side note of people learning what is going on and wanting to get involved is that a number of citizens who have prior information about these matters have now come forward and have offered to provide information and testimony as part of the investigation. I will be happy to share information with them if you wish. Feel free to contact me in touch with officials so you can contact the Washington State Auditor's Office or Washington State Attorney General at the addresses on the documents that are attached here.
