Support Staff Response

Dear Tabatha,

We have received your message regarding mylinh4education.org. As we are only the private registration provider, we are unable to investigate your complaint.

Below are some options for you to consider:

- If your goal is removal of website content, we encourage you to contact the hosting provider, which you can identify by performing a network Whois search found through a search engine.
- If you seek the identity of the domain owner, please review our subpoena policies here:

Customer Inquiry

Dear Sir or Madam, Washington State's Public Disclosure Commission, which regulates and enforces campaign finance laws and rules, has received a complaint against the owner of domain name www.mylinh4education.org. We are investigating the allegations but are unable to contact the owner (respondent) because there is not sufficient information available on the www.mylinh4education.org website. Specifically, the owner's name and email address are needed. The owner's mailing address, if available, would also be helpful. Preliminary research shows that Domains by Proxy, LLC is listed as "registrant" in the Whois database for domain name www.mylinh4education.org. A review of your company's website shows that it will release the name and personal information of its customers in "special situations" that involve conforming with the law. We believe this to be one such situation and hope that Domains by Proxy, LLC will be able to assist us in obtaining the domain owner's name and contact information so that we may reach them directly regarding this matter. Additional information regarding the Public Disclosure Commission can be found at <https://www.pdc.wa.gov/about-pdc> When responding to this email, please reference complaint #37765. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at tabatha.blacksmith@pdc.wa.gov or (360) 586-8929. Sincerely, Tabatha Blacksmith
