As to the allegations: Even though Mr. Brown did not provide the dates of the posts on his screen shots, the first Facebook post shown was done on Monday July 2nd. Kate Manke does not work on Mondays and was not on duty for a public agency. The second post shown was done on Friday June 29th in which Kate Manke was home sick and not on duty for a public agency. Sheriff's Office records can verify this if needed.

Please let us know if you need further.
