Compliance Coordinator

Public Disclosure Commission,

Responses to:

- Allegation One: Violation of RCW 42.17A.220, .240 for failure to timely report a $20,000 loan.
- Bookkeeping was using an out dated program and did not realize the reports where not processing. We have since updated the ORCA program and filed August 3rd, 2018.
- Allegation Two: Violation of RCW 42.17A.320 for failure to include party affiliation in four newspaper ads
- Bill Peach apologizes and he did not realize his party affiliation was not included. We have since corrected and are re-running the add.
- Allegation Three: Violation of RCW 42.17A.235 for failure to timely or accurately report expenditures.
- Bookkeeping again thought reports where being filed timely. Come to find out again with the new program we had missed a set up step for filing. There for corrected and sent all the needed reports in.
- Allegation Four: Violation of RCW 42.17A.320 for failure to disclose party affiliation or sponsorship information on doorbelling material.
- Bill Peach apologizes, as he did not realize this was happening with the door hangers. He has since contacted the other parties involved and has asked to be removed.

We left a voicemail this morning regarding these complaint violations. Please let us know if you need any more information and what if any more steps to resolve these issues.

Thank you

Sandy Schier
