

File a Formal Complaint - Rabecca Larson

Rabeccalarson reported (Tue, 31 Oct at 5:41 PM) via Portal Meta

Mr. Yin is campaigning for Bellevue City Council and is using images showing police officers and fire equipment, as if indicating the city or officers support him. Specifically, he has posted photos on his campaign's Facebook page of official-looking BPD and BFD badges; fire trucks; police officers in uniform, and photos of his family in front of a BFD truck with uniformed officers. This implies endorsement from city agencies and/or individual officers. He also posted a photo of uniformed officers with current Mayor John Stokes, who has endorsed his opponent.

I believe he is in violation of campaign advertising regulations as well as endorsement guidelines, and would like this matter investigated. Thank you.

Happy Halloween from our friends and family! Please stay safe in our City of Bellevue, Washington - Government neighborhoods as our children trick-or-treat. Make sure to:

1. Stay with a buddy in well-lit neighborhoods and areas.
2. Be visible! Bring flashlights, cell phones, or glow sticks.
3. Have fun! ... See More

Mayor John Stokes, Thank you for your service. I spent Saturday visiting the Woodbridge and BelRed neighborhoods and many residents are upset at the decisions leading to the Eastgate Shelter controversy. They are asking you to share the details of the background that led to these decisions.. The shelter is a prominent issue and the public deserves to know the facts from both supporters/opponents for all of us to make an informed decision that's in the best interest of Bellevue. That's why I support Jared Nieuwenhuis for City Council and Steve Fricke for Bellevue City Council--we need an honest & transparent City of Bellevue, Washington - Government. Let's work together.
