Re: Alleged violations of RCW 42.17A.235 and RCW 42.17A.700

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter responds to the complaint from Mr. Glen Morgan received on October 4. As a first-time candidate, I have tried my best to comply with all applicable legal requirements and to ensure that my campaign has done the same. Below, I address each of the alleged violations identified in Mr. Morgan's complaint.

1a. Filing C4 (Reference #100873442)

The original C4 report covering July 1 to July 31, 2017 was filed on its due date, August 10 (Reference # 100781623). This report was amended on August 24 (Reference # 100873442).

1b. Filing C3 (Reference #100766057)

The original C3 report for the $100 deposit on April 26 was filed on May 9, a day before it was due. (Reference #100759075). This report was amended on June 5 (Reference #100766057).

1c. Filing C3 (Reference #100766056)

The original C3 report for the $150 deposit on April 28 was filed on May 9, a day before it was due (Reference #100759076). This report was amended on June 5 (Reference # 100766056).

2. Filing F1

I was aware of the two-week deadline to file this report and was under the impression I submitted it within the time frame. However, I never received a confirmation, but as a first-time candidate I was unfamiliar with the process and did not realize there was a problem. The following week I realized that the filing must not have been received, so I resubmitted it. Now that I have experience with filing the F1 form and the filing software and process, I will act more quickly if any similar problem arises in the future and I am confident I would not have the same issue should I file this form again.

My campaign has filed 51 C3 and C4 reports to date, all of them on or before their respective due dates. Maintaining compliance and transparency is a priority to this campaign.

Thank you again for the opportunity to address this complaint. Please let us know if you have any questions or require any further information.

Sincerely,

Joy Langley
