Response.

1. I thought I was caught up. I actually should have let my lobbying license expire since I have not lobbied in a while.
2. As far as recording payments. At my work, I only charge the company my specific billable hours for lobbying. Lobbying is the smallest part of my job here so I am paid for more than lobbying. Billable hours are for travel to Olympia or to meetings. I have not done that in a while.
