Thank you for the recent communication and request for me to review the information submitted on September 11, 2017 by Glen Morgan. I have reviewed the exhibits and the memo that were submitted, and compared those to contribution and expenditure reports of my 2016 re-election campaign. The information in the exhibits are not related to my campaign, therefore, I respectfully request that you deem the complaint as unfounded and dismiss it promptly. Please contact me with questions.

Best regards,

Marcus Riccelli

Dear Representative Riccelli,

I am writing to let you know that on Monday, September 11, 2017, the Washington Attorney General's office received a citizen action notice complaint filed under RCW 42.17A.765(4) by Glen Morgan, alleging violations of Washington's campaign finance and disclosure requirements by your 2016 campaign. I've attached an electronic copy of the complaint and attachments for your review. Per state law, the initial 45-day notice period for this complaint expires Thursday, October 26, 2017.

After reviewing the allegations, will you please prepare a written response and send it to me by email? A response by Tuesday, October 3, 2017 would be appreciated. I'm copying your 2016 treasurer, Barbara Marney, on this email.

Thank you for your attention to this. Please contact me by email or at the numbers below if you have questions about the AGO's process in reviewing citizen action notice complaints.

Sincerely,

Tony Perkins
