Hello,

Thank you for the opportunity to reply. I believe that Mr. Matthews has confused two events. One was a city sponsored lunch in April at City Hall, and the other was a candidate event that I participated in at the Rosehill Community Center, that had nothing to do with any city funding.

First, last April, I hosted a Women's Executive Leadership Lunch, a city program that I have held 2-3 times per year since 2014. Our guest speaker was State Supreme Court Justice Mary Yu. The lunch is funded by the City, and brings women elected officials and community leaders together to hear from a dynamic speaker and network. There is no connection to my campaign at this event, no literature and no discussion. You may find the invite to the event attached to this email.

Second, in July, I participated in a low-cost fundraiser style event at Rosehill Community Center. It was funded through in-kind expenditures from the four candidates and other volunteers who participated, none more than $50. I did record the contributions on my July 31 C3 report. You may find the invite to that event attached to this email.

The Mukilteo Beacon looked into this complaint, as well, and covers similar information in this article: <https://mukilteobeacon.villagesoup.com/p/mayoral-challengers-complaint-based-on-hearsay/1687654>

You can also reach out to the woman quoted in the article, who attended the April lunch. Her name is Deb Bordsen, she is the Development Director of Snohomish County Domestic Violence Services. Her email is debra@snoco-dvs.org and her phone is 425-259-2827

Thank you for your service in verifying that my campaign is compliant. Please let me know if I can provide further information.

Thank You,
Jennifer

Women's Executive Leadership Luncheon

Washington State Supreme Court Justice

Mary Yu

Friday, April 14, 12:00-1:30

Mukilteo Mayor Jennifer Gregerson warmly invites you to a special luncheon featuring guest speaker Washington State Supreme Court Justice Mary Yu.

Mary Yu was appointed to the Washington Supreme Court in 2014 and subsequently elected. She was an accomplished trial court judge for over 14 years. She has an extensive record of service, mentoring young attorneys, law clerks, students, and serves of the board of FareStart. She is also an advisory board member of the UW School of Law's Global Public Service Program. Justice Yu was raised in Chicago with immigrant parents: her mother came from Mexico and her father from China. She is the first in her family to graduate from college.

Come hear Mary's story, join with other women executives in local government and the private sector to network, exchange ideas, and discuss opportunities for leadership and collaboration on issues affecting our communities.
