Re: Nineteen PDC complaints filed September 1, 2017

Dear Ms. Sandahl,

This letter is to confirm that I uploaded nineteen complaints to the Public Disclosure Commission on Friday, September 1, 2017 through the agency's web portal for complaint uploading, and that I ask the Commission staff to kindly treat those filings as complaints for purposes of the PDC's complaint resolution process.

As we discussed in a phone call this morning, the complaints generally cited to allegations of violations of Washington campaign finance laws recited in detail in letters I submitted to various county prosecuting attorneys and to the Attorney General on September 1. Copies of those letters were attached to my complaints uploaded to the PDC. While these allegations have been provided to the counties and to the Attorney General in the form of citizen action notices, the PDC has jurisdiction to consider the allegations as complaints at the same time. To be clear, I am asking that the PDC kindly treat the allegations as complaints for the PDC's own purposes, and take any action it deems appropriate.

The nineteen specific complaints I presented to the PDC on September 1 include the following:

I understand that in the future, it would assist in your process for me to list the PDC, or perhaps yourself, as a recipient on page one of the letters I prepare to notify state authorities of violations of Washington campaign finance laws. Additionally, you requested that I specifically state in the body of the letters I submit that they present a complaint to the PDC to the extent I seek to use the letter to initiate a PDC complaint review process. I am happy to accommodate your requests going forward.

Please feel free to contact me with any question concerning the allegations I have made in my citizen action notices and PDC complaints.

Sincerely,
