BEFORE THE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE COMMISSION
OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In the Matter of Enforcement Action Against

John & Laurie Knutsen
Respondents.

PDC Case 24298

Notice of Administrative Charges

I. JURISDICTION

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has jurisdiction over this proceeding pursuant to Chapter 42.17A RCW, the state campaign finance and disclosure laws; Chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act; and Title 390 WAC. These charges incorporate the Report of Investigation and all related exhibits by reference.

II. ALLEGATIONS

PDC staff alleges that John and Laurie Knutsen violated RCW 42.17A.305 by failing to file a C-6 Report of Electioneering Communications within 24 hours of mailing a flyer on July 6, 2017 that opposed John Hopkins, a 2017 candidate for Puyallup City Council. Mr. Hopkins appeared on the primary and general election ballots. The C-6 report was filed seven weeks late, and cost $2,100. Staff also alleges that John and Laurie Knutsen violated RCW 42.17A.320 by failing to include their name and address, as sponsors, on the electioneering communication that was also political advertising.

III. FACTS

1. John Hopkins was a Puyallup City Council member and a candidate for re-election who appeared on the 2017 primary and general election ballots. He was defeated by Jim Kastama in the general election on November 7, 2017. John Knutsen served eight years on the Puyallup City Council from 2008 through 2015, serving two years as Mayor from 2014 through 2015.
2. On July 6, 2017, over three weeks before the August 1, 2017 primary election, John and Laurie Knutsen sponsored a flyer that opposed Mr. Hopkins by including several negative statements about his past business practices. The flyer cost $2,100 and was distributed anonymously.
3. The flyer met the definition of an electioneering communication because it was received by the public within 60 days of the primary election, featured John Hopkins, a candidate in the primary election, and had a fair market value of $1,000 or more. The flyer also met the definition of political advertising because it appealed, directly or indirectly, for opposition to Mr. Hopkins when he was a candidate for Puyallup City Council.
4. John and Laurie Knutsen were required to file a C-6 Report of Electioneering Communications within 24 hours of first presenting the flyer to the public, or no later than July 7, 2017. They filed the report 52 days late on August 28, 2017, and four weeks after the primary election.
5. The flyer also met the definition of political advertising that required sponsor identification. John and Laurie Knutsen failed to include sponsor identification on the flyer.

IV. LAW

RCW 42.17A.005(19)(a) "Electioneering communication" means any broadcast, cable, or satellite television or radio transmission, United States postal service mailing, billboard, newspaper, or periodical that: (i) Clearly identifies a candidate for a state, local, or judicial office either by specifically naming the candidate, or identifying the candidate without using the candidate's name; (ii) Is broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published within sixty days before any election for that office in the jurisdiction in which the candidate is seeking election; and (iii) Either alone, or in combination with one or more communications identifying the candidate by the same sponsor during the sixty days before an election, has a fair market value of one thousand dollars or more.

RCW 42.17A.005(36) states, "Political advertising" includes any advertising displays, newspaper ads, billboards, signs, brochures, articles, tabloids, flyers, letters, radio or television presentations, or other means of mass communication, used for the purpose of appealing, directly or indirectly, for votes or for financial or other support or opposition in any election campaign.

RCW 42.17A.305 requires the sponsor of an electioneering communication to report to the commission within twenty-four hours of, or on the first working day after, the date the electioneering communication is broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published, and include: (a) Name and address of the sponsor; (b) Source of funds for the communication, (c) Name and address of the person to whom an electioneering communication related expenditure was made; (d) A detailed description of each expenditure of more than one hundred dollars; and (e) The date the expenditure was made and the date the electioneering communication was first broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published.

RCW 42.17A.320 states, in part, (1) All written political advertising, whether relating to candidates or ballot propositions, shall include the sponsor's name and address. All radio and television political advertising, whether relating to candidates or ballot propositions, shall include the sponsor's name. The use of an assumed name for the sponsor of electioneering communications, independent expenditures, or political advertising shall be unlawful. For partisan office, if a candidate has expressed a party or independent preference on the declaration of candidacy, that party or independent designation shall be clearly identified in electioneering communications, independent expenditures, or political advertising.

In RE COMPLIANCE WITH
RCW 42.17 and RCW 42.17A

John & Laurie Knutsen

Respondent.

PDC Case 24298

Report of Investigation

I. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The August 1, 2017 primary election ballot for Puyallup City Council included incumbent John Hopkins and challengers Jim Kastama and Curtis Thiel. Jim Kastama was the top vote getter in the primary with John Hopkins second. In the general election Jim Kastama defeated John Hopkins, with Mr. Kastama receiving 1,346 votes (62%) and Hopkins receiving 823 votes (38%).
- 1.2 On July 10, 2017, three weeks before the primary election, William Noland contacted PDC staff expressing concern about an anonymous flyer he had received in the mail concerning Puyallup City Council member John Hopkins that he described as a political hit piece. He provided a copy of the flyer.
- 1.3 PDC staff explained that without the identity of the sponsor, there was little that could be done. Soon after receiving the inquiry from Mr. Noland, staff became aware of the bulk mail permit number, and contacted the Orting Post Office, who identified the owner of the bulk mail permit. Staff informed Mr. Noland that further inquiries could be made to determine the identity of the sponsor of the flyer, and on August 7, 2017, William Noland filed a complaint concerning the anonymous flyer. He asked PDC staff to make additional inquiries to identify the sponsor of the anonymous flyer.
- 1.4 PDC staff contacted the owner of the bulk mail permit number (L&L Printing of Puyallup, Washington) and learned that John and Laurie Knutsen had co-sponsored the flyer. Staff opened an investigation, naming John and Laurie Knutsen as the Respondent, and alleging that they failed to report the cost of the mailer as an independent expenditure or electioneering communication, and failed to include sponsor identification on the flyer. After receiving a copy of the complaint, John and Laurie Knutsen claimed they were not required to report the expenditure, but later agreed to file the missing report, and disclosed a $2,100.00 expenditure.

- 1.5 On August 28, 2017, four weeks after the primary election, John and Laurie Knutsen filed a C-6 Report of Independent Expenditures and Electioneering Communications. They made no additional election related expenditures. John Hopkins, the candidate opposed in the flyer, finished second in the primary and lost in the general election.
- 1.6 John Knutsen was a successful candidate for Puyallup City Council in 2007 and 2011. During both elections, he selected the Mini Reporting option which did not require him to file contribution and expenditure reports. He served on the Puyallup City Council for eight years, from 2008 through 2015, and served as Mayor from 2012 through 2015.

II. ALLEGATIONS IN COMPLAINT

- 2.1 On August 7, 2017, William Noland filed a complaint alleging that on or around July 10, 2017, he received an anonymous flyer concerning Puyallup City Council member John Hopkins, a candidate for re-election, alleging unlawful or unethical acts. Mr. Noland alleged that the flyer was not signed and did not have any identifying information. He urged PDC staff to make additional inquiries, and said he hoped staff could identify the sponsor of the mailing. (See Exhibit 1)
- 2.2 PDC staff identified John and Laurie Knutsen as sponsors of the anonymous flyer, and named them as Respondents that may have violated RCW 42.17A.255 and RCW 42.17A.305 by failing to report independent expenditure political advertising and electioneering communications, and RCW 42.17A.320 by failing to include sponsor identification on the communication.

III. FINDINGS

- 3.1 On July 6, 2017, John and Laurie Knutsen sponsored a flyer concerning John Hopkins, a candidate for Puyallup City Council. The flyer was titled "A DOCUMENTED HISTORY OF MAYOR JOHN HOPKINS DISREGARD FOR THE LAWS, ORDINANCES, AND REGULATIONS." It included several negative statements about Mr. Hopkins' past business practices. The flyer did not include sponsor identification. (See Exhibit 1)
- 3.2 PDC staff became aware of the bulk mail permit number under which the anonymous flyer was mailed, and contacted the Orting Post Office to obtain the name of the owner of the permit number. Staff learned that the permit number was owned by L&L Printing, 1430 E. Main Street, Suite E, Puyallup, Washington, 98372.
- 3.3 On August 9, 2017, staff contacted Brian Snell, President of L&L Printing, and asked him to identify the sponsor of the flyer and provide a copy of the invoice for the services provided. (See Exhibit 2) Staff provided Mr. Snell with a copy of the complaint and flyer, and the relevant statutes and rule.
- 3.4 On August 11, 2017, Mr. Snell responded by letter, stating his customer had assured him that they had received no money to pay for the flyer, and had not given any money to any candidate in the Puyallup City Council election. (See Exhibit 3) Mr. Snell's letter included a statement from his customer that read:

Dear Public Disclosure Commission.

As a private citizen, I have merely shared information that is already in the public view (TV, Newspaper, Public Disclosure). Since I am not connected to any candidate, I feel the PDC does not cover my actions and that your complainant is using the PDC to determine who sent the letter. I request you forward any court decision or case law that requires a private citizen to identify themselves to the PDC for mailing information on a seated elected official if they are not part of any campaign.

- 3.5 Mr. Snell concluded his letter by stating that L&L Printing would comply with the PDC's response to the statement made by his company's customer.
- 3.6 On August 11, 2017, staff again contacted Mr. Snell, asking him to identify the sponsor of the flyer and send a copy of the invoice for services provided. Staff included a letter outlining the responsibilities of a Commercial Advertiser under RCW 42.17A.345 and WAC 390-18-050 to provide the information requested by the PDC, and explained why his customer's flyer required sponsor identification, and probably needed to be reported to the PDC as an electioneering communication. (See Exhibit 4)
- 3.7 On August 16, 2017, John Knutsen spoke with PDC staff member Kurt Young by telephone about the complaint. On August 17, 2017, Mr. Young confirmed their conversation by email, stating that the flyer complained about by William Noland lacked proper sponsor identification, met the definition of an electioneering communication, and was required to be reported on PDC form C-6. Mr. Young provided Mr. Knutsen with a copy of the complaint, a blank C-6 report, and instructions for filing the report. Mr. Young also asked Mr. Knutsen to submit a written response to the allegations. (See Exhibit 5)
- 3.8 On August 23, 2017, the PDC received a letter from John and Laurie Knutsen acknowledging that they had paid $2,100 to print and mail the flyer concerning John Hopkins. The letter also stated that the Knutsens had reviewed the RCWs sent to them by the PDC, and had concluded that the requirements did not apply to their situation, but said they found no reason not to cooperate with the PDC, and told staff to feel free to contact them if additional information was needed. (See Exhibit 6)
- 3.9 On August 28, 2017, PDC staff informed John and Laurie Knutsen that the flyer met the definition of an electioneering communication because it was received by the public within 60 days of the August 1, 2017 Primary election, featured John Hopkins, a candidate in the Primary election, and had a fair market value of $1,000 or more. Staff again provided the Knutsens with a copy of the complaint and a blank C-6, and requested that they file the missing report and submit a written response to the complaint by September 8, 2017. (See Exhibit 7)

- 3.10 On August 28, 2017, John and Laurie Knutsen filed a C-6 Report of Electioneering Communications and a written response to the complaint. Mr. Knutsen stated that being independent citizens communicating with other citizens, they did not feel the need to report their actions. He said they were not aware of the PDC's requirements at the time the flyer was created and mailed. Mr. Knutsen said that as a former elected official he always followed PDC requirements, but saw distribution of their mailer as an independent right to educate the public. He said he recalled past editorials, letters to the editor, and other media publications being distributed to the public right up to election day, and assumed they had the same right. (See Exhibit 8)
- 3.11 On August 31, 2017, staff thanked Brian Snell of L&L Printing for reaching out to his client, John and Laurie Knutsen, informed him that the Knutsens had filed the missing C-6 report, and again asked for a copy of the invoice issued to John and Laurie Knutsen. (See Exhibit 9)
- 3.12 On September 6, 2017, L&L Printing responded to staff's request and provided a copy of the invoice for the services provided to John & Laurie Knutsen. The invoice confirmed that the total cost for the work was $2,100. (See Exhibit 10)
- 3.13 At staff's request, on October 11, 2017, John and Laurie Knutsen filed an amended C-6 report of Electioneering Communications to show that their mailer opposed John Hopkins for Puyallup City Council, and that the flyer was paid for from the personal funds of John and Laurie Knutsen. (See Exhibit 11)

Interview of John Knutsen and Confirmation with L&L Printing

- 3.14 On November 30, 2017, PDC staff interviewed John Knutsen. Mr. Knutsen confirmed that he believed he had a constitutional right to communicate with his fellow citizens. (See Exhibit 12)
- 3.15 Mr. Knutsen declined to explain what he hoped to accomplish by sending the flyer anonymously, but noted that it created more talk in the community. He said putting his name on the flyer would have hurt John Hopkins more than an anonymous flyer because he is a former Mayor of Puyallup.
- 3.16 Mr. Knutsen could not recall whether L&L Printing advised him to include his name on the flyer. Staff contacted Brian Snell of L&L Printing, and learned that Mr. Snell was not aware of the sponsor identification requirement, and did not instruct the Knutsens to include their names on the flyer. Mr. Snell said the post office did not remind him of the sponsor identification requirement. He said he intends to make sure future customers include sponsor identification on political advertising.
- 3.17 Mr. Knutsen said he was not aware of the need to file a C-6 Report of Electioneering Communications at the time he sent out the flyer. He said if he had been aware of the requirement he would have filed the report.

- 3.18 Mr. Knutsen declined to say why he included the words INFO.PUYALLUP at the bottom of the flyer, but denied it was done to mislead people or to make them think there was a website where they could learn more about John Hopkins.
- 3.19 Mr. Knutsen said he and his wife conducted the research and wrote the flyer. He said they paid for the flyer with their own funds, and confirmed that no one helped pay for the flyer or loaned them money so they could pay for the flyer.
- 3.20 Staff asked Mr. Knutsen why he did not include his name on the mailer if he saw it as being similar to a letter-to-the editor. He said he had many reasons for not including his name on the flyer, but emphasized that he did not withhold his name to avoid complying with PDC rules, or to hide behind an anonymous flyer. He said he spoke at several Puyallup City Council meetings before the election, and each time talked about one or two of the items that he included in the flyer. He said anyone following city business would have known that he was the author of the flyer.
- 3.21 Mr. Knutsen said he and his wife sent out the flyer to inform people in Puyallup about their Mayor, John Hopkins. He said they sent the flyer to registered voters in Mr. Hopkins' council district.

IV. SCOPE

- 4.1 PDC staff reviewed the following documents and interviewed the following people:
1. A complaint filed by William Noland against the sponsors of an anonymous flyer concerning John Hopkins, a candidate for Puyallup City Council;
  2. Responses to the complaint by John and Laurie Knutsen, the sponsors of the anonymous flyer;
  3. Responses from Brian Snell, President, L&L Printing, the company that printed and mailed the flyer;
  4. The C-6 Report filed by John and Laurie Knutsen.
  5. Interviewed John Knutsen.
  6. Spoke with Brian Snell, President, L&L Printing

V. LAW

RCW 42.17A.005(19)(a) "Electioneering communication" means any broadcast, cable, or satellite television or radio transmission, United States postal service mailing, billboard, newspaper, or periodical that:

- (i) Clearly identifies a candidate for a state, local, or judicial office either by specifically naming the candidate, or identifying the candidate without using the candidate's name;

(ii) Is broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published within sixty days before any election for that office in the jurisdiction in which the candidate is seeking election; and

(iii) Either alone, or in combination with one or more communications identifying the candidate by the same sponsor during the sixty days before an election, has a fair market value of one thousand dollars or more.

RCW 42.17A.005(36) states, "Political advertising" includes any advertising displays, newspaper ads, billboards, signs, brochures, articles, tabloids, flyers, letters, radio or television presentations, or other means of mass communication, used for the purpose of appealing, directly or indirectly, for votes or for financial or other support or opposition in any election campaign.

RCW 42.17A.305 requires the sponsor of an electioneering communication to report to the commission within twenty-four hours of, or on the first working day after, the date the electioneering communication is broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published, and include: (a) Name and address of the sponsor; (b) Source of funds for the communication, (c) Name and address of the person to whom an electioneering communication related expenditure was made; (d) A detailed description of each expenditure of more than one hundred dollars; and (e) The date the expenditure was made and the date the electioneering communication was first broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published.

RCW 42.17A.320 states, in part, (1) All written political advertising, whether relating to candidates or ballot propositions, shall include the sponsor's name and address. All radio and television political advertising, whether relating to candidates or ballot propositions, shall include the sponsor's name. The use of an assumed name for the sponsor of electioneering communications, independent expenditures, or political advertising shall be unlawful. For partisan office, if a candidate has expressed a party or independent preference on the declaration of candidacy, that party or independent designation shall be clearly identified in electioneering communications, independent expenditures, or political advertising.

File a Formal Complaint - William Noland

Williamnoland reported 2 days ago (Mon, 7 Aug at 5:30 PM) via Portal

On 7/10/17 I received an anonymous flyer in the US Mail concerning Puyallup City Council member John Hopkins, alleging unlawful or unethical acts. The flyer was not signed nor did it have any identifying information. In my original correspondence with the PDC, I attached a copy of the flyer. I cannot attach a file at this time because I did not keep the flyer. I am filing this complaint not because I am a supporter of John Hopkins; rather, I think it is cowardly, unethical and unlawful to smear a candidate for political office without identifying the sponsor of the mailing. I have been advised by the PDC staff that they are now aware of the bulk permit holder. As a consequence, it is my understanding that the PDC can make additional inquiries in trying to determine the sponsor of the mailing. It is my hope that the sponsor of the mailing can be identified as a result of this complaint. Thank you for your efforts to resolve this matter.

A DOCUMENTED HISTORY OF MAYOR JOHN HOPKINS DISREGARD FOR THE LAWS, ORDINANCES, AND REGULATIONS.

- 10/04/73 Anchorage Alaska, arrested for removing and concealing, FBI #14359N7.
- 01/99 Charged in Pierce County for failure to obtain building and fire permits. If convicted could be fined $1000.00 and or 3 months in jail. Flooded neighboring yards with unpermitted fill. Charges dropped. The City of Puyallup annexed the property 3 days before trial.

SINCE HOPKINS HAS BEEN ON THE CITY COUNCIL

- 03/18/14 stated he had voted for a marijuana moratorium in the past, but was now voting against it because he had a renter who wanted to use his property for a marijuana business. Puyallup C.C Meeting.
- 10/14 Property owned by Hopkins raided by State, Local, and Federal Law Agencies. An unlawful hash oil lab was in full production. Hopkins claimed he had no relationship with the renter and was unaware of what was occurring in his building. Emails between Hopkins and his tenant tell a different story. Hopkins said he collected rent in cash on the sidewalk. KOMO News, Tacoma News Tribune
- 02/15 Hopkins pays a fine of $3337.82 plus for violating State Labor Laws. Hopkins housed one of his employees in a storage shed, no plumbing, no heat and no windows. Other employees were not paid what is required by the Department of Labor and Industries. Hopkins has proudly stated that he was a business agent for an electricians union. Several days after leaving the storage shed, Hopkins employee was contacted by police in a semi-trailer on Hopkins property. See Puyallup Police Report.
- Date uncertain. Hopkins filed a code compliance complaint on property, next to his property on East Main. 08/03/15 email verifies complaint. After the owner sold the property, the new owner became entangled in City building codes and compliance issues. Hopkins offered to buy the property. Hopkins offer was far less than the tax value or real value of the property. This issue is ongoing at this time.

SUMMARY

- It is apparent that John Hopkins is willing to pass laws that require the public to follow what he legislates, but is not willing to follow the same laws. Why should any of us have to follow the rules and laws if our elected officials don't have to? It becomes apparent as to why the Puyallup Police Association has never endorsed John Hopkins.

Subject: Complaint filed Against Sponsor of Anonymous Flier

Dear Mr. Snell:

Thank you for your August 11 letter replying to my request for information about services L&L Printing provided to the sponsor of a flyer concerning John Hopkins, a 2016 candidate for Puyallup City Council. I outlined your responsibilities under RCW 42.17A.345 and WAC 390-18-050 to provide the requested information, and you indicated L&L Printing will comply with the PDC's response to the statement from your client.

Your client states that as a private citizen he merely shared information that is already in the public view. He stated he does not feel the PDC covers his actions, and he asked the Commission to forward any court decision or case law that requires a private citizen to identify themselves to the PDC for mailing information on a seated elected official if they are not part of any campaign.

RCW 42.17A includes various requirements for candidates and political committees. The law also imposes requirements on other persons, including individuals using their own funds, who make expenditures of $100 or more in support of or in opposition to any candidate or ballot proposition that is not otherwise required to be reported under RCW 42.17A.205 to RCW 42.17A.240. It appears that the expenditure for the flyer was made in opposition to candidate John Hopkins, and if the sponsor spent $100 or more, the expenditure would need to be reported as an independent expenditure on a C-6 Form within five days of making the expenditure. The reporting requirement for individuals making independent expenditures not otherwise required to be reported, is found in RCW 42.17A.255.

In addition, it appears that the flyer constituted political advertising, defined in RCW 42.17A.005(36), and that the sponsor was required to include sponsor identification on the flyer (i.e. "Paid for by" or "Sponsored by" followed by the sponsor's name and address). This requirement is found in RCW 42.17A.320.

Brian Snell

While the PDC has subpoena authority under RCW 42.17A.110 and Washington Administrative Code 390-37-063, we are asking that you voluntarily provide the information requested in my August 9, 2017 letter. Once that information is received, PDC staff will work with the sponsor of the flyer to understand what occurred and determine an appropriate resolution to the complaint.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter. If you have questions, please contact Phil Stutzman at (360) 664-8853, toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail at phil.stutzman@pdc.wa.gov. Please copy Peter Lavalley on your reply. Thank you.

Subject: Mailer in Puyallup featuring John Hopkins

Mr. Knutsen,

This email is a follow-up to our telephone conversation yesterday afternoon concerning a mailing you sent out that featured John Hopkins, incumbent Mayor of Puyallup and a candidate seeking re—election to that office in 2017.

As we discussed , the PDC has received a complaint from William Noland concerning the mailer described above, alleging that the mailer did not identify the sponsor as required by RCW 42.17A.320, and that the costs of the mailer were not disclosed to the PDC (see copied and pasted copy of complaint below). PDC staff identified L & L Printing as the vendor who was involved in the production and distribution of the mailer based on the bulk mail permit number, and contacted L & L in order to determine the sponsor of the anonymous mailer, in accordance with WAC 390-18-050 and pursuant to RCW 42.17A.345.

Thank you for reaching out to the PDC staff after being contacted by a representative from L and L Printing. I have included the statutory definition of an “electioneering communication” below, and bolded the relevant areas of the statute that pertained to the mailer you sponsored.

RCW 42.17A.005(19)(a) "Electioneering communication" means any broadcast, cable, or satellite television or radio transmission, United States postal service mailing, billboard, newspaper, or periodical that:

- (i) Clearly identifies a candidate for a state, local, or judicial office either by specifically naming the candidate, or identifying the candidate without using the candidate's name;
- (ii) Is broadcast, transmitted, mailed, erected, distributed, or otherwise published within sixty days before any election for that office in the jurisdiction in which the candidate is seeking election; and
- (iii) Either alone, or in combination with one or more communications identifying the candidate by the same sponsor during the sixty days before an election, has a fair market value of one thousand dollars or more.

Staff believes the mailer constitutes an electioneering communication that is required to be disclosed on the Independent Expenditure/Electioneering Communications report (C-6 report) as an Electioneering Communications (RCW 42.17A.305), for the following reasons:

1. The mailer featured John Hopkins, a candidate on the August 1, 2017 primary ballot.
2. The mailer was distributed within 60 days of the primary election.
3. The mailer costs more than $1,000.

I have attached a copy of the C-6 report for you to review, complete and mail in to the PDC (FYI- you would need to check box 3 on the C-6 report for an electioneering communication). PDC staff is requesting that you file the C-6 report as soon as possible, and we would further request you provide a written response to the allegations in Mr. Noland's complaint by August 25, 2017. Let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Kurt Young
PDC Compliance Officer

File a Formal Complaint - William Noland

Williamnoland reported 10 days ago (Mon, 7 Aug at 5:30 PM) via Portal Meta

On 7/10/17 I received an anonymous flyer in the US Mail concerning Puyallup City Council member John Hopkins, alleging unlawful or unethical acts. The flyer was not signed nor did it have any identifying information. In my original correspondence with the PDC, I attached a copy of the flyer. I cannot attach a file at this time because I did not keep the flyer. I am filing this complaint not because I am a supporter of John Hopkins; rather, I think it is cowardly, unethical and unlawful to smear a candidate for political office without identifying the sponsor of the mailing. I have been advised by the PDC staff that they are now aware of the bulk permit holder. As a consequence, it is my understanding that the PDC can make additional inquiries in trying to determine the sponsor of the mailing. It is my hope that the sponsor of the mailing can be identified as a result of this complaint. Thank you for your efforts to resolve this matter.

PDC staff is requesting that you file the C-6 report as soon as possible, and we would further request you provide a written response to the allegations in Mr. Noland's complaint by August 25, 2017. Let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Kurt Young

Public Disclosure Commission

Attn: Kurt Young

We received a copy of a request filed by William Noland. He asked for the name of the person mailing information on Puyallup Mayor John Hopkins. My name is John Knutsen, my wife, Laurie and I sent out the mailers as independent private citizens. Since we are not involved in any campaign, we do not feel we are under the scope of the PDC. We are however willing to share the following information at your request. We paid exactly $2100.00 for the mailing. We have received no money from any candidate or campaign. We have given no money to any candidate or campaign. We have endorsed no one. All of the information mailed, we took from TV news, newspapers, and public disclosures. In addition to the mailer, I (John) have appeared at televised Puyallup City Council Meetings and presented the information during the citizen comments. We have no intention of spending any more of our money on future mailers.

We have reviewed the RCWs that you sent us. They all are directed to campaigns or candidates, or independent contributors to campaigns or candidates. We do not feel they apply to us but find no reason not to cooperate with you. Feel free to contact us if you would like any further information.

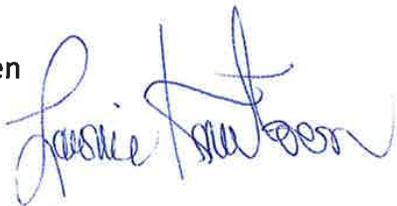

We have always found your office to be fair and easy to deal with. Even though we feel Mr. Noland is not entitled to any information concerning what we do, we will not be unhappy if you feel it's necessary to give him our name.

Thank you,

John Knutsen

John and Laurie Knutsen,

PDC staff has opened a case file for the complaint filed by William Noland on August 7, 2017. The complaint alleges that William Noland received an anonymous mailer concerning John Hopkins, a candidate for Puyallup City Council, on July 10, 2017. The PDC has determined that the flyer was sponsored by John and Laurie Knutsen, that it was received by the public within 60 days of the August 1, 2017 Primary election, that it featured John Hopkins, a candidate in the Primary election, and that it had a fair market value of $1,000 or more. Thus, the complaint is alleging that you may have violated RCW 42.17A.305 by not filing a C-6 report of electioneering communications (see definition of electioneering communications) within 24 hours of mailing the flyer, and that you may have violated RCW 42.17A.320 by not including sponsor identification on the flyer.

Kurt Young of PDC staff sent you an email on 8/24/17 with a copy of the complaint and a blank C-6 report. He asked you to file the missing C-6 report as soon as possible, and to provide a written response to the complaint by 8/25/17. I am also attaching a copy of the complaint and a copy of a blank C-6 form for reporting electioneering communications. Please provide a written response to the complaint and file the missing C-6 report by September 8, 2017.

PDC staff received a letter from you on 8/23/17, stating you have reviewed the RCWs and do not feel they apply to you. Your letter was sent before Mr. Young's 8/24/17 email was sent. If your letter, received 8/23/17, is your written response to the complaint, please confirm that fact by replying to this email. If you would like to provide a separate written response, now that the PDC has opened a case file, please provide your written response by September 8, 2017, as noted above. Thank you. If you have questions, let me know.

Phil Stutzman,

In response to your request for information on a mailer, my wife, Laurie, and I sent on the Mayor of Puyallup, we offer the following. My wife Laurie and I are life long Puyallup residents. After watching Mayor John Hopkins continual disregard for laws and ethical behavior, we decided to compile a list of his misdeeds. We decided to compile a list and send it to the citizens in his district. All information has been on, TV, radio, newspapers, or through public disclosure. We applied to the City of Puyallup many months ago, for public disclosure on John Hopkins, and are still waiting for the final installment. In July we decided to send what we had acquired and move on.

We paid exactly $2100.00 for the mailers and do not intend to spend anymore. We are not part of any candidates campaign. We have not given or taken any money from any candidate or campaign, nor have we endorsed any candidate. Being Independent citizens communicating with other citizens we did not feel the need to report our actions. We were not aware of your requirements at the time. As a former elected official I always followed the PDC requirements but saw our mailer as an independent right to educate the public. We recall, editorials, letters to the editor and other media publications distributed to the mass public right up to election day so we assumed we had the same right.

Sincerely,
John and Laurie Knutsen

The C-6 Form will be mailed tomorrow.

Interview Summary
John Knutsen, Case 24298
11/30/17
(31 min. 23 seconds)

- (Background) John Knutsen was interviewed under oath by Phil Stutzman, PDC Sr. Compliance Officer, on November 30, 2017. Mr. Stutzman was alone in his office at the Public Disclosure Commission in Olympia, Washington, and Mr. Knutsen was alone and participated by telephone. John and Laurie Knutsen jointly sponsored a one-page mailer on July 6, 2017 concerning John Hopkins, a candidate for Puyallup City Council. The flyer was titled “A DOCUMENTED HISTORY OF MAYOR JOHN HOPKINS DISREGARD FOR THE LAWS, ORDINANCES, AND REGULATIONS” and attributed several negative actions to Mr. Hopkins. The flyer cost $2,100.00, and did not identify its sponsor. Mr. Knutsen did not file the missing C-6 report until required to do so by PDC staff.
- The interview was recorded to an audio file, but was not transcribed. This document is a summary of the interview, but is not intended to be a word-for-word transcript. Mr. Knutsen was provided a copy of the one-page mailer concerning John Hopkins prior to the interview.
- Staff asked Mr. Knutsen how he came to the conclusion that he was not required to identify himself and his spouse as the sponsors of the flyer. He stated that he believed he had a constitutional right to communicate with his fellow citizens.
- Mr. Knutsen stated that he did not consult with anyone about whether he should put his name on the flyer. When asked whether he and his spouse discussed putting their names on the flyer, he replied that he did not see how putting his name on the flyer had anything to do with anything. He declined to explain the strategy of the flyer or why he did not include his name on the flyer. He said that not putting his name on the flyer created more talk in the community. He also stated that Mr. Hopkins is an extremely vindictive man.
- Mr. Knutsen expressed frustration that what started out as a simple question about who paid for the flyer has turned into to a formal investigation with questions about his motives for sending out the flyer. He asked whether there is a “push” from someone to continue the investigation beyond identifying who wrote the flyer. He reminded Mr. Stutzman that he was participating in the interview voluntarily, and said he was spending more time responding to the complaint than was merited. Mr. Stutzman thanked Mr. Knutsen for his input, and said PDC staff wanted to know the basic facts about the alleged violation to facilitate an appropriate resolution of the complaint.
- Staff asked if the Printer (L&L Printing) suggested or reminded him of the need to include sponsor identification on the flyer. Mr. Knutsen said he could not remember his conversation with the Printer, and suggested that staff contact the Printer directly for an answer to that question.

- Mr. Knutsen confirmed that he served on the Puyallup City Council for eight years, which included serving the last two years as Mayor. Staff asked why he did not call the PDC to ask whether he was required to include his name on the mailer. He said his flyer was simply restating what had already been reported by the media on television and in newspapers about the seated Mayor. He said he disagreed that there should be a time limit on speaking out or producing material about a sitting elected official.
- Staff asked Mr. Knutsen if he was attempting to influence the election. He declined to comment about what he hoped to accomplish by sending out the flyer.
- Mr. Knutsen said he was not aware of the need to file a C-6 Report of Electioneering Communications at the time he sent out the flyer. He said if he had been aware of the C-6 requirement he would have filed the report.
- Staff asked why he included the words, "INFO.PUYALLUP" at the bottom of the flyer. He said there was no meaning to the words, and said they were something he "pulled out of the air" to make people think about the information in the flyer. He said he believed that putting his name on the flyer would have hurt John Hopkins more than not putting his name on the flyer because he is a former Mayor of Puyallup.
- Mr. Knutsen said he supported John Hopkins the first time he was elected, and said they worked well together for about four years. He said eventually he could no longer work with Mr. Hopkins. Mr. Knutsen said he never ran against Mr. Hopkins.
- Mr. Knutsen said he and his wife conducted the research and wrote the flyer. He said they paid for the flyer with their own funds. He said no one helped pay for the flyer, and no one loaned him money so he could pay for the flyer.
- Mr. Knutsen said he believes people have a right to send out information about elected officials at any time, without regard to whether the official is on the ballot. He said he was not aware that the sponsor identification requirements applied to his flyer. He noted that he did not identify a favorite candidate in the flyer.
- Mr. Knutsen said Jim Kastama was going to easily win the election with or without the flyer. He said he did not campaign for any candidate.
- Staff asked Mr. Knutsen why he did not include his name on the flyer if he saw it as being similar to a letter-to-the editor. He said he had many reasons for not including his name on the flyer, but emphasized that he did not withhold his name to avoid complying with PDC rules, or to hide behind an anonymous flyer. He said he spoke at several recent Puyallup City Council meetings, and each time talked about one or two of the items in the flyer. He said anyone following city business would have concluded that he was the author of the flyer.

- Mr. Knutsen said he and his wife sent out the flyer to inform people in Puyallup about their Mayor, John Hopkins. He said they sent the flyer to registered voters in Mr. Hopkins' council district.
- Mr. Knutsen had no final comments and the interview was concluded.
