

Diane Dobson has reported on FaceBook for several months of all the healthy contributions people have made to her campaign and I personally know people that have donated hundreds to her campaign. I became curious and find that she has failed to file any information with PDC. I've been this route before, these reports are simple to file.