Subject: Complaint regarding Mark Roe, PDC Case 23089

Dear Lori Shavlik:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has completed its initial review of the complaint you filed on July 17, 2017. Your complaint alleged that Mark Roe may have violated RCW 42.17A.635 for use of public funds to lobby in support of Dawson's Place and RCW 42.17A.710(1)(g) for failure to disclose membership on Board of Directors of Dawson's Place.

PDC staff reviewed your allegations, and as a result of staff's initial review, we found the following:

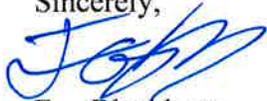

- The alleged actions committed by Mark Roe do not constitute Lobbying, as defined in RCW 42.17A.005(30).
- Consistent with the guidance issued on May 25, 2017, at a public meeting of the Public Disclosure Commission, elected and appointed officials who receive compensation under $1,200 from a board or commission where they serve pursuant to a legal obligation as an office holder, are not required to list their membership on the supplement to the F-1.

Based on these initial findings, staff has determined that in this instance, no evidence supports a material violation warranting further investigation.

The PDC has closed the matter, and will not be conducting a more formal investigation into your complaint or pursuing further enforcement action in this case.

If you have questions, you may contact Fox Blackhorn at 1-360-753-1980 toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail at fox.blackhorn@pdc.wa.gov.
